Wm Marshall

We published in the April number of the CRAFTSMAN a biographical sketch of M. W. Bro. Robert Marsall, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, and we are enabled in this No. to publish a portrait of our distinguished Brother. Having so recently sketched M. W. Bro. Marshall's Masonic career, it is unnecessary to do so again; nor have we anything to add to what has already been said, save that he is President of the New Brunswick Masonic Hall Company which was formed for the erection of a Hall or Temple to take the place of the one destroyed by the great fire in June, 1877. A description of the "Temple" appeared in last month's CRAFTSMAN; and the inception and successful issue of the undertaking is due in a great measure to the zeal and energy of Bro. Marshall.
