

THE CANADIAN
BEE JOURNAL
WEEKLY

"THE GREATEST POSSIBLE GOOD TO THE GREATEST POSSIBLE NUMBER."

VOL. V. No. 37 BEETON, ONT., DEC. 11, 1889. WHOLE No. 246

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have completed arrangements with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a first class agricultural monthly, published in Philadelphia, whereby we can make the following unparalleled offers :

1—To every present subscriber who will get us a new subscription, for one year at $1.00, we will send the Farm Journal FREE, and the new subscriber, whose name is sent will also receive it free of all charge.

2—For 30 cents, we will send the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY, the balance of the year (1889) and the Farm Journal right through 1890.

This splendid offer enables all our subscribers to get for themselves an excellent agricultural paper, absolutely free of charge and we hope to see hundreds of our patrons take advantage of it. Please lose no time in attending to this matter. All subscriptions received with $1.00, will be entered as expiring January 1st 1891, so that the new subscribers will receive each paper 15 months. Come now, and help us.

Our Leading Premium.

To BEE-KEEPERS.—A beautiful virgin queen, for delivery in the spring of 1890 will form the leading premium in this department of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY. The price of these when sold singly is 60 cents, but we will send one by mail, prepaid, to all those who send direct to this office $1.00 as a years subscription either new, or for a renewal of one full year. We also give choice of other premiums, and subscribers are at liberty to choose which they will have.

EDITORIAL.

WE regret very much to learn the cause of Mr. T. G. Newman's absence from the Brantford meeting. Mrs. Newman has been seriously ill for a long time and her life has at different times been despaired of. Just at the present time she was worse than usual and serious fears were entertained for her recovery. We extend to Mr. Newman the sympathy of the readers of the C. B. J. coupled with our own in expressing the hope that Mrs. Newman may soon recover.

Dr. Miller who was expected up till the last moment, failed to put in an appearance. Why, we have not yet learned, but we do know that he was sadly missed, and by no one more than the writer, who had hoped to shake hands with him again, and renew the pleasant acquaintance begun at Toronto in 1883,
