

"THE GREATEST POSSIBLE GOOD TO THE GREATEST POSSIBLE NUMBER."

VOL. V. No. 45 BEETON, ONT., JAN. 29. 1890. WHOLE No. 253

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have completed arrangements with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a first class agricultural monthly, published in Philadelphia, whereby we can make the following unparalleled offers :

1.—To every present subscriber who will get us a new subscription, for one year at $1.00, we will send the Farm Journal FREE, and the new subscriber, whose name is sent will also receive it free of all charge.

This splendid offer enables all our subscribers to get for themselves an excellent agricultural paper, absolutely free of charge and we hope to see hundreds of our patrons take advantage of it. Please lose no time in attending to this matter. All subscriptions received with $1.00, will be entered as expiring January 1st 1891, so that the new subscribers will receive each paper 12 months. Come now, and help us.

Our Leading Premium.

To BEE-KEEPERS.—A beautiful virgin queen, for delivery in the spring of 1890 will form the leading premium in this department of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POULTRY WEEKLY. The price of these when sold singly is 60 cents, but we will send one by mail, prepaid, to all those who send direct to this office $1.00 as a years subscription either new, or for a renewal of one full year. We also give choice of other premiums, and subscribers are at liberty to choose which they will have.

THE British Bee Journal comes out in new shape and dress with the first issue of the new year. It is now a 16-page weekly, with pages the same size as the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL. But this is not the only change. The Bee Keepers' Record until recently conducted by Wm Raitt and W. B. Carr, has been amalgamated with it and the future name of the publication will be The British Bee Journal & Bee Keepers' Record and Adviser, under the joint editorship of Thos. W. Cowan and W. Broughton Carr. A monthly edition will be published. Two such editors, combining the scientific and practical as these should make things hum, and we have no doubt but that they will.

Now that a committee has been appointed to prepare a bill for presenta-
