

The Canadian Wheelman

A JOURNAL OF CYCLING.

The Official Gazette of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association, and of the Cyclists' Touring Club in Canada.

VOL. VI.

LONDON, CANADA, APRIL, 1887.

No. 6.

—IT IS—BUILT THAT WAY.

"In the Ramblers' Great Century Run, nine of the fifteen riders who finished, rode Victors. Five different makes of machines were represented."—St. Louis Spectator.

"Not one of the nine Victor riders had even a spoke loosened in his wheel."—St. Louis Wheel Company.

13,498 MILES IN ONE YEAR,

Ridden by G. J. Loomis on a Victor during 1886. We believe this is the greatest distance ever covered in one year.
