

YOUNG MEN'S MEETING

Every Saturday Evening,
AT 8 O'CLOCK, FOR ONE HOUR.

COME

INFIDELITY.

INFIDELITY, what is it? A dark and cheerless system of unbelief, which orphanizes the whole creation, and robs man of his Father, and his hopes. Where did it come from? It is the offspring of folly, for "the fool hath said in his heart, there is no God." Why should a man be an infidel? Will it make him any better? No. "For as a man thinketh so is he." If he thinks he is poor, he will act like a poor man; and if he thinks he is a beast, he will act like a beast. Will it make him happier? No. Is it medicine to the sick? No. Clothes to the naked? No. Eyes to the blind? No. Legs to the lame? No. Hope to the mourner? No. Life to the dead? No. Who, then, needs the instruction of the infidel? The wise man? No. He is wise enough without it. The fool? No. He is a fool already and has no need to say there is no God, in order to convince the world that he is a fool. The Christian? No. He would make a sorry bargain, to exchange God for chance, or a mansion in heaven for a narrow grave. Why, then do infidels work to spread their unbelief? Cannot a man come into the world without it? Yes. And laugh? Yes. And cry? Yes. And eat, drink and sleep? Yes. And die, and be buried? Yes. What more can he do with it? Nothing. What advantage, then, is infidelity? None.
