Taste of Tunnies in Butten.—The method I have pursued here of feeding mulch cows with turnips and hay, without the milk or butter being in the least degree tainted with the taste of turnips has been so successful, and is so very simple, that I am induced to send you a state ment of it for insertion in the journal, in the hope that it may be useful to some of your readers. About six or seven years ago, I saw it stated in a provincial newspaper, that to leed cows with turnips immediately after being milked, and on no account to give any shortly before milking, prevented the milk from tasting of the turnips I adopted the hint, and ever since then there has been no occasion to complain of the milk or butter tasting of turnips. The method I pursue is this: immediately after being insiked in the morning, they get as many turnips as they can eat; if any are left in their troughs they are taken out. During the day they are fed on hay, and unmediately after milking at night they get the same quantity of turnips. The milk and butter are very much admired by all who take them, both for colour and flavour, and I have often been called upon to give a statement of our system of feeding by our visitors - George Smith in Gardeners' Chronicle.

MAPLE SUGAR MARING .- You were giving some directions for making Maple Sugar, I will tell you my plan, and were it not for the paying for the carriage, I would send you a speciment I gather and boit the sap as quickly as possible, until it becomes syrup, so as it will feel a little sticky between the finger and thumb; it is then taken home and strained through a woolen cloth; put on the fire in a clean put, (Scotch, you understand,) about a pint of milk put into a bucket of syrup, brought to a boil; again strained through a clean woollen cloth—the same as honey is dripped-which cleans it from all impurities; then sugared off in the usual manner, and it is as white as Muscavado. Soft maple makes as good sugar as hard maple, and more of it. I have made altogether from soft maple for a number of years. -- Cor. of Montreal Herald.

RENTAL OF FARMS —Amidst the present out-cry about agricultural distress, it is wonderful, and still more true than wonderful, that every farm that comes into the market is re-let at an advance of rent. Among the farms let in the Lothians during the last three months, we have heard of only one case in which there was not an advance on the old rent, and that one case was unimportant, and the diminution trifling. We specify two or three cases, premising that all have been let on 19 years' leases, and on the expiry of leases of the same duration. Balgone Barns, a rise of 10 per cent. on the old rent. Spittal, from £2 9s. to £2 14s. 2d. an acre (estimating the highest fiars for wheat at 50s.) or, in round numbers, 10 per cent. North Berwick Mains, a rise of 9 per cent. North Borwick Abbey, a slight rise. Redside, not known exactly, but understood to be about 10 per cent above old rent. These are all extensive farms, with no peculiarities rendering them unfair instances, and have all but one been let since harvest, and three of them since the New-Year. We should like to know of any species of property but land that can at this time show an improvement of 10 per cent, over the value at which it has steed during the preceding twenty years .- Scotsman.

AN ANCIENT DAME'A -In the travels of Lord Landsay, the noble author states, that, in the course of his wanderings amid the pyramids of that patriarchal and interesting land (Egypt) he stumbled on a mummy proved by its hyeroglyphics to be at least 2000 years of age. In examining the murning after it was unwrapped, he found in one of its closed hands a tuberous graphical Sketches-Patliamentary Proceedings, Europeor bulbous root. New and entarged Edition, with the Author's last additions

A BOOK FOR EVERY PROTESTANT

The History of Romanism, from its earliest origm to the present time—By the Rev. John Dowling, D. D—Embelhshed with upwards of 50 highly mashed engravings, chiefly from original designs.

Just published, with the Author's final corrections, a new and entarged Edition of this spleadid and popular work, with a copious supplement, comprising a History of the Life and Reign of the present remarkable Pepe, PIUS IX, and a Bi egraphical Sketch of the last Pope GREGO

MIL best encommon upon this learned, complete and popular History of Romanism, is the fact that SIX-TLLN THOUSAND COFILS have been sold in about three years, and still there is a constant demand for it in all parts of the country. In order to meet this demand and to gratify the public curiosity in relation to the present Prope Pais (A), the present emarged edition is 4 to 8 int of to the public. With the Supplement, the work now forms a splendid octavo volume, for the parlor, or for the library.

Testimonials to former Editions, selected from more than a hundred, from all Protestant Denomi-

EPISCOPAL.

From the Protestant Churchman.

This is a beau, ful volume of 672 pages. Good service has been done for the cause of truth by this publicanon, and it certainly ought to secure for its author an en-viable reputation among contributors to the standard literature of the day."

From the Emscopal Recorder.

Olt traces its subject from the earliest corruptions of Christianity to the present time. It has a full Chronological Table with Analytical and Alphabetical Indices and Glossary. It is a large and beautiful volume, and full of valuable information."

METHODIST.

From Zion's Herald.

"It is written in a popular style. Its engravings are numerous and finely executed. The book will doubtless be popular, and cannot full to produce a profound convic-tion of the terrible majority of Anti-Christ."

Rev. George Coles, of the Christian Advocate and Jour nal, says—" I cannot but express my gratitude to Almighty God that such a concise and complete development of ' the Mystery of Imquity' is now presented to the public in a form so elegant and aftractive."

CONGREGATIONAL.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Christian Intelligencer, (Dutch Reformed.)

"Those who would see a correct and condensed exhibition of the ten thousand adominations of the Papacy, may find it, to their amazement, in 'Doucling's History of Romanism.' Its contents form a rich sortehouse of historical instruction, which it it could be placed within the reach of every family, world prove an unspeakable bles-sing to our beloved country. This is the book for Ameri-cans. Place it beside your Bibles. Compare its records of crime and the Popul principles it exposes with the holy doctrines and immaculate life of Jesus of Nazareth. When you have done this, you will have no difficulty in determining whether or not Romanism is Christianity."
Rev. Alexander Campbell, President of Bethany College, of the Church of the Reformers, says: "In this work are an innuruse assemblage of facts and documents conin which no young man can be found willing to spend two or three weeks this winter to win at least die $25 prize?

THE WATER CURE JOURNAL,

AND HERALD OF REFORMS.

VOLUME EIGHTH, COMMENCING JULY, 1849.

THE WATER-CURE JOURNAL AND HERALD OF REFORMS, is published monthly, at ONE DOLLAR a year, in advance, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, illustrated with Engravings, exhibiting the structure. Anatomy and Physiology of the entire Human Body, with familiar explanations and instructions to locations. learners.

THIS JOURNAL

is emphatically a Journal of Health adapted to all classes, and is designed to be a complete family guide, in all cases, and in all diseases.

HYDROPATHY

will be fully unfolded, and so explained that all may apply it in various diseases, even those not curable by an other means. There is no system so simple, harmless, and universally applicable, as the Waten-Clas. Its effects are almost unraculous, and it has already been the means of saving the lives of thousands, who are entirely beyond the reach of all other known remedies.

will be fully discussed, in every particular, including Food,

Air Drinks, Clouing, and Exercise, showing their effects on the body and mind.

THE PHYLOSOPHY OF LIFE AND MEALTH

m all our modes of life will be pointed out, and made so plain that "he that runs may read." We believe fully that man may prolong his life much beyond the number of years usually attained. We propose in this Journal to show how.

TO INVALIDS,

no matter of what lisease, the principles of Hydropathy may safely be append, and in mine cases out of ten, great benefit may be derived therefrom.

TO THOSE IN HEALTH.

Without health even life is not desirable, unless a remedy can be found. To preserve health no other mode of living can compare with this system. In fact, were its rules observed and carried out, many of our ills would be for-ever banished from the earth, and the succeeding genera-tions grow up in all the vigor of time mankind.—It will be a part of our duty to teach the world how to preserve health, as well as to cure disease.

TO WOMEN AND MOTHERS

it is universally conceded, by all intelligent practitioners, as well by the old school as the in w. that the Water-Curo is not equalled by any other mode of treatment in those peculiar troubles common only to toman. This Journal will contain such advice and instruction as may be considered most important, in all these critical yet unavoida-

TO HYDROPATHIC PRACTITIONERS.

We wish to have it distinctly understood, that this Journal will be devoted to the interests of no party, but will represent the entire Hydropathic profession. Our pages will be open to all who may favor us with such communications as may be of general interest to all classes. Reports of important cases, and all other matters pertaining to health, will be thankfully received, and laid before our readers.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Our facilities for publishing such a work, as this are unsurpassed by any other house in the United States. We have obtained the co-operation of all the leading Hydrowhole combined talent of the entire profession. Besides pathic writers of the age, which will enable us to present the this we have had a wide experience in journal publishing, and have secured the services of nearly all the medical reference in the land. reformers in the land.

THIS JOURNAL

will be published monthly, containing thirty-two large pages of the best matter, with reference to the applications of this system, adapted to all classes, on the following
