—At a meeting of the directors of the South Eastern Railway, held in this city last Saturday, a resolution was passed instructing the President to protest the Passumpsic Company on the ground that they were allowing the South Eastern road, which is leased to them, to get into a condition dangerous to traffic, particularly near the Province line at North Troy, where several serious accidents have occurred. The Passumpsic Company consider they are only bound to make the smaller repairs. The South Eastern Directors resolved to at once undertake the work themselves, and steps have been taken to temporarily close through traffic. In the meantime the South Eastern Railway Company will themselves conduct traffic between Montreal and North Troy, for which they have ample funds and rolling stock. This action on the part of the company meets with the general approval of the inhabitants of the southeastern counties.

—At the Assize Court in Ottawa a case was tried a few days ago which is of some interest to the mercantile community. One Elley brought an action against James Pratt, boot and shoe dealer, to recover the amount of $490 for goods obtained by false representation, the defendant being charged with being insolvent at the time he gave the order, and therefore not in a position to pay and with little hope of being so. The defendant had made an assignment a few days after ordering the goods, and his estate showed liabilities of nearly $9,000 with assets of less than $2,000. Judge Burton, in charging the jury, pointed out that there could be no doubt that the defendant was well aware when he bought the goods that he was insolvent, and pointed out the recklessness with which some people conduct business, contrary to all legitimate rules. The jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff and the court ordered the defendant to pay $500 and the costs of the trial, in default to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding twelve months. The defendant was in court when the judge was charging the jury, but had departed when sentence was passed. He subsequently appeared and paid the amount.
