corporations in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such doctions in the territory of the ter ments may, without prejudice to the provisions of Article 5, be served on the recipient, in either of the ways provided in Articles 3 and 4.

ARTICLE 3 (a) A request for service shall be addressed by a Consular Officer of High Contracting Party from whose territory the documents to be served emanate, to the competent authority of the country where the documents and to be served, requesting such authority to cause the documents to be served The request shall be sent by such Consular Officer to such authority.

(b) The request for service shall be drawn up in the language of the country where service is to be effected.

The request for service shall state the full names and descriptions the parties, the full names and address and description of the recipient, and the nature of the document to be served, and shall enclose the documents

(c) The document to be served shall either be drawn up in the language of the country in which it is to be served, or be accompanied by a translation in such language. Such translation shall be certified as correct by a Consula Officer of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the docur

(d) Requests for service shall be addressed and sent—

In England, to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court of Judicature. In Denmark, to the Court in whose district the person to be served resident or sojourning, and where such person is resident or sojourning Copenhagen, to the Copenhagen Town Court.

If the authority to whom a request for service has been sent is not conpetent to execute it, such authority shall of his own motion transmit the document to the competent authority of his own country.

(e) Service shall be effected by the competent authority of the countil where the document is to be served, who shall serve the document in the manner prescribed by the municipal law of such country for the service of similar documents, except that, if a wish for some special manner of service is expressed in the request for service, such manner of service shall be followed in so for as it is not incompatible with the law of that country.

(f) The execution of the request for service duly made in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Article shall not be refused unless (1) authenticity of the request for service is not established, or (2) the High Combined tractions Depth in the request for service is not established, or (2) the High Combined tractions are requested in the request for service is not established. tracting Party in whose territory it is to be effected considers that his sovereign or safety would be compromised thereby.

(g) The authority by whom the request for service is executed shall furnish a certificate proving the service or explaining the reason which has prevented such service, and setting forth the fact, the manner and the date of such services or attempted service, and shall send the said certificate to the Consular Officer whom the request for service was made. The certificate of service or of attempted service shall be placed on one of the duplicates or attached thereto.

ARTICLE 4

(a) Unless the recipient is a subject of the High Contracting Party in who territory the document is to be served, service may be effected without and request to or intervention of the authorities of the country where it is effected

(1) By a Consular Officer of the High Contracting Party from who territory the document emanates.

by wh the do

graph Whose langua transl

the te ritory of ser the co served official at the provisi the re Party Where charge charge of that Petent (7 by who for in one H docum

Parties W

Contra in Arti accords of Req be take country in such