

7. Each Contracting Party shall also give sympathetic consideration to a request from the other Contracting Party, in accordance with Article 13, paragraph (1) whereby the aeronautical authorities of one Contracting Party could visit the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party, on a reciprocal basis, for the purpose of assessing the security measures being carried out by aircraft operators in respect of flights destined to the territory of the first Contracting Party.

8. When a Contracting Party has reasonable grounds to believe that the other Contracting Party has departed from the provisions of this Article, the first Contracting Party may request immediate consultations with the other Contracting Party. Failure to reach a satisfactory agreement will constitute grounds for the application of Article 3 of this Agreement.

9. When an incident or threat of an incident of unlawful seizure of civil aircraft or other unlawful acts against the safety of such aircraft, their passengers and crew, airports or air navigation facilities occurs, the Contracting Parties shall assist each other by facilitating communications and other appropriate measures intended to terminate rapidly and safely such incident or threat thereof.

Article 18

1. The charges which either of the Contracting Parties may impose, or permit to be imposed, on the designated airline
