Company/Product

Environmental Technologies International Inc., established in 1988, is a Canadian environmental company engaged, through its subsidiaries, in supplying technologies, equipment, and products to municipal and industrial customers in the environmental protection and pollution control fields. The company's goal is to manage and develop a group of profitable subsidiaries promoting activities which contribute positively to the preservation of the environment.

Environmental Technologies' extensive list of subsidiaries include Hankin Environmental Systems Inc., Anvic International Inc., Keriox Corporation, CFC-Tek Inc., Spill Tech Industries Inc., Ergo Solar Pumps Inc., and Enertec Blowers Inc. Among other disciplines, these subsidiaries and their parent companies have expertise in sewage sludge combustion systems, the design, manufacture, and sale of electronic motor control equipment and systems, the custom design of control systems for entire plant operations for potable water and wastewater treatment plants, and the removal and recycling of CFC's.

Current Geographic Marketing Activities

Environmental Technologies operates through six subsidiaries in two distinct groups in the United States and Canada.

Contact Sought

Environmental Technologies' management works with its operating subsidiaries to expand its existing product base as well as to establish new markets and applications. The company is interested in expanding its market to both Western and Eastern Europe, the Middle East, the Far East, South America, and Australia. Furthermore, the company is interested in acquisitions which operate in the environmental protection and pollution control fields (focusing on equipment and proven technology), which use innovative technology, and have excellent growth potential. Environmental Technologies is not interested in companies which operate in areas involving the transport or handling of hazardous or toxic materials or the operation of waste treatment facilities.
