

ARTICLE 1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

ARTICLE 2. DEFINITIONS

ARTICLE 3. ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP

1. The Organization shall be a legal entity, established in accordance with the laws of the United States of America, and shall have the capacity to acquire and dispose of movable and immovable property, and to institute legal proceedings.
2. The status, privileges and immunities of the Organization, its staff and members, and its representatives of member states in the territory of Japan shall be determined by the Headquarters Agreement between the Government of Japan and the International Atomic Energy Agency signed in Tokyo on February 1957, with such amendments as may be necessary for the proper functioning of this Agreement.
3. The Organization may conclude, with one or more countries, agreements to be approved by the Council relating to such matters as privileges and immunities as may be necessary for the proper functioning of this Agreement.
4. If the headquarters of the Organization is moved to another country, the status in question shall, as then in force, continue with the Organization; a Headquarters Agreement to be approved by the Council, providing for the relocation of such an Agreement, the Organization shall request the new host Government to grant, within the limits of its national legislation, measures for taxation or compensation paid by the Organization to its employees, and on the subject of taxes and other property of the Organization.
5. The Headquarters Agreement shall be independent of this Agreement. It shall, however, terminate.
6. By agreement between the host Government and the Organization, it may be the seat of the Organization or the Organization may be moved from the country of the host Government or
7. In the event of the headquarters being moved to Japan