

Gabriela Gref-Innes

Business Development Officer

Previous positions include Project Manager in the Operations Division of CCC (Canadian Commercial Corporation) as a project and program management and development in aerospace, environment, defense, space (NASA and other international space agencies). Worked with Canadian International Development Agency on Project management for Africa and Public Works and Government Services in Government procurement. Part of the International Agencies Group in CCC from 1983 to 1990 developed strategies for cooperation and partnership between CCC, Canadian private companies and United Nations Agencies in Europe.

Other positions held in the Canadian Federal Government include Project Management with Royal Canadian Mint, Fisheries and Oceans, Customs Canada and Anti-Inflation Board. Private sector positions in market development and project management with International Trading Companies in Europe and Canada.

With a BA in Languages and Literature has also undertaken the Masters Program for International Affairs at Carleton University, Ottawa. Special Studies in the field of Government Procurement, Legal Requirements, U.S. Contract Law, Intellectual Property, Advanced Analysis for Competitive Intelligence and Corporate Strategy among others.

In private Capacity holds the position of a member with CPTM (Commonwealth Partnership for Technology Management, London, UK), patron of Art Institutions, director and co-founder of Cultural Associations, member of World Future Society.