

now invested in armaments which would earmark a specific percentage of the diverted funds to official development assistance. Within a context of global disarmament, such a proposal might find support.

In making a similar suggestion three years ago, Olaf Palme said: "If two trends which threaten peace can be transformed into one process that would enhance the possibilities of peace, why should we not do our utmost to attain this change of direction?"

Parliamentarians for World Order could be the agent for change in bringing about this new direction. I wish you well in your deliberations.
