

On June 24, 1993, the United States announced its EEP initiatives for the 1993-94 marketing year, providing export subsidies for 32 million tonnes of wheat to 30 countries and regions. The announcement included an EEP allocation of 1.4 million tonnes to Mexico, a traditional Canadian market. In 1992, Canada exported 479,700 tonnes of wheat to Mexico.
