

(5) Mr. Basford states that this statement is clearly wrong - you will only have to produce a valid licence.

We wish to advise the committee that Sec 100 (1) requires that every commercial seller of ammunition keep a record of each sale in a form prescribed by the commissioner. Every retailer we have contacted has indicated to us that they cannot afford the time to fill out any such forms and they will expect the customer to do this chore.

(9) You will not be able to teach your children the rudiments of gun safety until they are fourteen years old. It will be illegal for anyone under fourteen to handle a firearm under any circumstances - Sec 106 - 3, and abolition of present section 101 (B).

We have seen nothing to indicate that Mr. Basford or anyone else challenges the validity of this statement. We will comment no further on it at this time.

(10) The Government feels non-residents are far more law abiding and safe than you as a Canadian citizen. They are absolved from most of the conditions you face to get a licence or permit - Sec 106 - 3.

We submit that Mr. Basford's statement to you clearly upholds our promise. He said, "Obviously in the case of non-residents, Mr. Chairman, we have a problem. Either we can put them through the whole Canadian regimen or we can outlaw them entirely, both of which I would reject. Tourism is an important aspect of rightful activity, and I think we have to recognize the position of foreign hunters. We also have to recognize that the bill endeavours to
