

Order Paper Questions

		4	1974	8,689	no
		3	1975	5,481	no
5677	Pakistan	1	1974	1,222	no
5680	Tunisia	1	1974	6,029	no
		2	1975	3,497	no
5682	Zaire	1	1975	2,223	no
5683	Zambia	1	1975	1,500	no
		1	1976	1,375	no

Part 3

Eligibility of Canadian business under the Pre-Investment Incentive Program: (a) The program is available to Canadian business and industry defined as individuals, proprietorships, partnerships and limited companies being Canadian citizens, with an established head office in Canada. They must have demonstrated their competency in a particular field and possess adequate resources for investment. (b) The applicant firm must be financially stable and capable of carrying through with a proposed project. (c) The applicant must intend to hold reasonable equity in a resulting enterprise, and the investment should be represented by tangible assets. (d) All types of industrial activity are eligible, provided the above criteria are met.

[Editor's Note: The following answer applies to Questions Nos. 5,656, 5,657, 5,659, 5,660, 5,663, 5,664, 5,670, 5,673, 5,676, 5,678, 5,679, 5,681.]

PROMOTION OF INVESTMENTS

Question No. 5,656—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Bangladesh since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?
4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,657—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Bolivia since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?
4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,659—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Cameroon since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?

4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,660—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Chile since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?
4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,663—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Dahomey since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?
4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,664—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Ghana since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?
4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,670—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Laos since 1972?
2. How much was granted to such companies in each year since 1972 by the government or any para-governmental agency to promote and support such investments?
3. Under what terms and conditions did the government and/or agencies make such grants?
4. What (a) are the names of the beneficiary companies (b) is the location of their head office (c) was the purpose and nature of their investment?

Question No. 5,673—Mr. Caouette (Témiscamingue):

1. How many grants has the government or any para-governmental agency given to various Canadian companies to promote or support certain investments in Nepal since 1972?