

6/ Then there are the twenty entirely free scholarships, paid for by the successive governments of the last ninety years — and paid in order to enable free learning pupils to pass the very same sort of examination as that which no High-School — of Quebec last-term boy can compete in now.

I am not, unhappily, an education expert, or even a varsity man, of any kind at all: just an odd man in-and-out of authorship, on both sides of the water and the line. But I really think I've told the truth here now.
With apologies for this intrusion, I am Sincerely yours
Wilka Wood.
