

CHAPTER IV.

Gethsemane—The potter's field—Mahometan burials—
Jewish homes—Synagogues—Armenian customs—Trade and commerce—Oriental habits—Mosque of David—Mount Zion—Street scenes—The Saviour's grave—Adam's grave—Relics—The true cross—The Wandering Jew—Modern tourists—Traditions of the East—Beggars—The Golden Gate..... 134

CHAPTER V.

Bethany—Bethlehem—Cave of the Nativity—The Dead
Sea—Heavy waters—Hebron—The Philistines—Gaza—Eastern inns—Tiberias—Jewish tribute—Nazareth—Turkish extortion—The Jordan—Modern Beyrout—Tripoli—Antioch —Turkish misrule—Olympic games—Aleppo 165

CHAPTER VI.

Damascus—The famous swords—The modern city—
Mark Twain's humorous description—Remarkable ruins—
Tripoli—The Cedars of Lebanon—Ancient descriptions—Climate and soil of Syria..... 227

CHAPTER VII.

Countries on the Euphrates and Tigris—An interesting territory—The Assyrian and Babylonian empires—Armenia
—Mount Ararat—The junction of three empires—Kars—Orpha—Mosul—Vast dimensions of Nineveh—Mounds and ruins—Wandering Arabs—Bagdad—Oriental magnificence —Babylon—Hanging gardens—Smyrna, the lovely—The fig trade—Bazaars—Ruins of Ephesus—Brusa—Magnificent mosques—The plain of Troy—Angora goats—Trebizond—
The savage Koords—Turkish forts—Cyprus—Turkish houses and inns—Eastern baths—Habits and customs of the Moslems—Turkish traits—Their dress—Physique and military customs—Military despots..... 257

CHAPTER VIII.

Turkey in Europe—Sea of Marmora—The Balkan mountains—The Danube—Climate, soil and vegetation—The