42. An Anfwer to Dr. Maynew's-Ob/ervations.

towards the Converfion of the Negroes, which they have been alked, or faw how to give; and particularly, that they have withdrawn none fince the Increafe of their Miffions in New England. On the contrary, they have extended their Care far beyond the literal Bounds of their Charter, and in 1751 appointed a very worthy Miffionary, with a Salary of $70 \%$ a Year, to inftruct the Negroes in Africa: where he continued five Years, and then returned to England on Account of his Health ; having firt fent over to the Society three Boys of goor Families, to be educated under their Direction. One of thefe is dead; the other two have been maintained, though as frugally as was proper, yet at no fmall Expence, and taught whatever would fit them to propagate Chriftianity in their native Country, to which they are now on the Point of going back. The greatef Part of this the Doctor mult have known from the Abfracts, but hath mentioned nothing of it. For it would have been hard to reconcile with his Accufation of the Society, that they have difregarded every thing elfe, to propagate Epifcopacy.

The latt head of his Charge of Negleet relates to the Colonies, unprovided of a competent Number of Minifters. Here he faith, that though be will not affirm it for Truth, yet be bath been very credibly informed, that the People in fome of the Southern Colonies, and particularly in tbofeParts. of North-Carolina, which were entirely deftitute of MiniJers, had made carnef and repeated Applications to the Society for Miffonaries, fometimes without any Anfwer for Tears together, and at laft without Succe/s: and that fome. fenfable and ferious Perfons from that Country, Jeveral Tears ogo, be thinks gave him the fame Account; but that whether they did or not, they made fuch a. Reprefentation of their fad State for Want of Minizters, that at the Moment of his Writing, it was not in bis Power to refrain from Tears in reffecting on it. And then he makes his ufual charitable Addition, that perbaps the Society had it not in their Power to comply with thefe Solicitations, by Reafon of their large Expence in the noble Defign of fupporting and increafing Witle epifcopal Parties, or Factions, in New-England.* So
