Iligion and Liberty too dearly purchased at that Rate. Such an Undervaluing of those Blessings none can be cap ble of, whose Hearts are not hardened, and who are not doomed to utter Perdition. As to what may be objected concerning Trade, I and swer, That granting our Trade to the Streights should suffer an Interruption by the War, such an Inconvenience would be far iess than the total Loss of it, not only thither, but to the West Indies, besides the Loss of the Manusacture of our fine Drapery, which it has been proved, will be one of the necessary Consequences of our sitting still.

'Yet I can see no Necessity of granting that our Turky and Italian Trades will ' fuffer by the War, if we will suppose our Maritime Affairs to be well managed. The War we are to make must be altogether by 'Sea, and confequently implies a Necessity of our having every Summer a strong Fleet 'in the Mediterranean, to harrass our Ene-'mies there, which we shall be now in a 'much better Condition than at that Time, feeing we are in Possession of Gibraltar and " Port Mahon; why then our Traders thither may not be protected by that same ' Force, I cannot see. And if strict Prohibi-'tions be made against any Ships going thi-' ther, but under the Convoy of our Men of 'War at set Seasons; 'tis probable, much 'fewer
