Addrefs from the Delegates in ij74.

But if you are determinied that your Minifters Thall wantonly port with the rights of mankind-If neither the voice of juftice, the distates of the law, the principles of the conftitution, or the fuggeftions of humanity can reltrain your hands from fhedding humarn blood in fuch an impious caufe, we muft then tell you, that we never will fubmit to be hewers of wood or drawefs of water for any miniftry or nation in the world.

Place üs in the farme fituation that we were at the clofe of the laft war, and our former barmony will be refored.

But left the fame fuipinenefs and the fame inatention to our common intereft, which you have for feveral years fhown, fhould continue, we think it prudent to anticipate the coniequences.

By the de.truction of the trade of Bofton, the Miniffry have endeavoured to induce fubmifion to their meafures: The like fate may befall us all, we will endeavour therefore to live without trade, and recur for fubfiftence to the fertility and bounty of our native foil, which will afford us all thic neceffarics and fome of the conveniences of life: We have fufpended our importation from Great Britain and Ireland; and in lefs than a year's time, unlefs our grievan:es fhould be redreffed, thall difcontinue our exports to thofe hingdoms and the Weft-Indies:

It is with the utmoft regrethowever, that we find ourfelves compelled by the over-ruling principles of felf-prefervation, to adopt meafures detrimental in their confequences to numbers of our fellow fubjects in Great Britain and Ireland. But we hope, that the magnanimity and juftice of the Britifh Nation will furnifh a Parliament of fuch wifdom; in dependance on public fpirit, as may fave the violated rights of the whiole empire from the devices of wicked Minifters and cvil counfellors, whether in or out of office, and thereby reftore that harmony, friendihip, and fraternal affection between all the inhabitants of his Majefty's kingdoms and territories, fo ardently wilhed for by every true and honeft American.

$$
F I N I S
$$

