

"How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?" "In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows are darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the streets."—Ecclesiastes xii. 3.

"And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.—1 Cor. xv. 49.

*"Like leaves on trees the race of man is found,
Now green in youth, now withering on the ground;
Another race the following spring supplies;
They fall successive, and successive rise:
So generations in their course decay;
So flourish these, when those are pass'd away."*
