

ly bound in cloth.
Illustrations by
SHEPARD, 3/6

RIGHT.

PH HOCKING.

"Men are Lions,"
and "Oet."

This volume proves
Mr. Hocking has historical roman-
ce is, in its way,
corrected, as well
of incident as some from the pen
of Mr. Stanley

"We read Mr.
Hocking; not because of the task, but simply compelled us. . . .
as each chapter
yet cannot stop
yet unflagging. . . .
Hocking upon his advance upon anything. We prophesy a big fight."

ly bound in cloth.
Illustrations by
SHEPARD, 3/6

THEY DIE?

PH HOCKING.

critic.—Novels and able stories, quite related in vigorous
in exciting incident,
riched with local
our attention in art to finish."

ness says: "Two of the year."
ays: "An engaging
nance. The reader
n with a sigh, and
e more of these ands, for Mr. Joseph e of narrative does

"There is nothing
s de siccis in Mr.
but a bright, hopeful
ay say, of goodness;
a treating love, with
e ties of home life."