

Son into the world, that every one that believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life, have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me. Holy Father, I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am no more worthy to be called Thy son. I have turned from Thee, and have broken all Thy commandments. I have not walked aright, but have gone after mine own lusts, choosing those ways, which Thou hast forbidden me to tread in. Neither, O Lord, have I feared Thine anger, but have been in all things disobedient unto Thee, and have hardened my heart against Thee. I have hated instruction, and cast Thy sayings behind me. Truth has found no place in me, and my hands have been the workers of much wickedness. I have spoken vainly, idly, and wickedly. I have brought forth deceit, and meditated the way of untruth. I have provoked Thy wrath against me, by accustoming myself
