proving effectual where the first had failed.

It was a regular "mopping up" day, for in addition to fresh subscriptions citizens were asked to renew their endeavor and double up on their work of paying bonds. How successful the plan proved is evidenced by the figures published. This "double-up" canvass will be continued today and Monday.

To work vigorously in the interests of the loan until the last moment is the outstanding duty which campaigners set before their eyes. To come first in the friendly race between Toronto and Montreal is a secondary but by no means uninteresting motive for work.

Arrangements have been made for the tanks to remain open until midnight on Saturday, and bond salesmen will remain on duty until the same hour.
