++++++++++++++++++++++++ CITY HALL NOTES.

 Mr. Sanders, executive officer of the managers, to visit the wards of the society in the western district, where a large number of boys ranging in age with farmers. A personal visit to Strathroy, Glencoe and other points has long been desirable, but the funds of the society prevented this. In every instance Mr. Sanders found the children in good homes. In one case, however, a child had proved a disappointment to the foster parent, but this boy had already been placed out three times, and when transferred the last time Mr. Sanders made no secret of the fact. He brought back with him two boys and a little girl. One of the boys was a ward of the Protestant home, who recently escaped from that institution. The little girl is 3 years handed in to The Advertiser office by old, and was immediately placed in a lady who read the advertisement in very superior home on her arrival in nis city.

The board of works may be called upon tonight to consider the re-christening of a large number of streets in West London whose names are the same as others in the city proper. Among these duplicates are: Mill, Dufferin, Center, Queen, William, John, Ann (2), Peter, Burch, Bryan, Pine, Oak, Francis, Elm, Mount Pleasant, Alma, Chester and Grafton streets and River avenue. Unless these are changed there will be endless fusion. It is proposed to call Mount Pleasant street Piccadilly, as it is a continuation of the latter thorough-

Yesterday Dr. Hutchinson, medical health officer, and Market Clerk Wilson learned that a dealer named Wm. Jeffery had purchased a cow on the Hamilton road for $3, and had offered it for sale at a very low price. It was reported that the animal had lump jaw, and the health officer made a search for the owner, fearing that the beef might be offered for sale on the market. He found, however, that the cow had been purchased for $16 by a man on the Hamilton road. The animal is still alive. The health officer of London township has been notified. The hospital improvements cannot be started too soon. All the private wards at the general hospital are occupied, and several applications for admission cannot be granted at present. The public wards, too, are well Twinging, Shooting Pain.

The New York Tribune today says: "Sudden activity and a heavy advance on the New York Stock Exchange in the stock of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad and the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad are accompanied by a report that there is to be practically a union of the two lines. The gist of the report is that the stock of the Lake Shore, which sold yesterday at 186, is to be taken over by the New York Central, which will pay 200 for it in some new security to be issued. William K. Vanderbilt is credited with the belief that by a union of the two lines there will be a better control of the traffic, and great economies may be effected. The capital stock of the Lake Shore is $49,466,500. The New York Central controls the West Shore, the Rome, Watertown and Ogdens-burg, New York and Harlem and the New York and Putnam.
