UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY,
JUNE 29, 1919.

ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION.

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.
Review—Response to God's love.
Selection for Reading, Philippians III, 7-14.

The questions for this week may be used as an original lesson, or as a review of the twelve preceding weekly lessons. The date, and title of each lesson, where found, golden text, and one question selected from each lesson follow during the present week.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

June 1. Faith: What it is and what it does. Heb. 11:1-40; 12:1, 2.

Golden Text: Believe in God, believe also in me. John 14:1.

3. Verses 5, 6. Why is it impossible to please God without faith? Genesis 12:1-4; Matt. 7:16-23; John 14:21-24.

Golden Text: Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you.

John 15:14.

10. Matt. 7:21-23. Does God expect and is it reasonable for him to expect that ordinary mortals can do his will in all things?

Golden Text: I will praise thee, O Lord, my God, with my whole heart.

Psalm 86:12.

COMMUNITY PRAISE PRODUCES SPIRITUAL PLEASURE.

I have been at negro services and have heard the worshippers sing with their peculiar music and words until the whole congregation seemed to be blended together. I have seen them wave their bodies in unison and beat tunes to the music with their feet as they have been lost in the rapture of their worship, and I have thought that this child-like simple method of giving vent to their feelings of adoration in soul-stirring music was about as near to the way the angels sang as we could imagine, and upon occasion I have seen companies of white people sing songs of rapture until time and space were forgotten, and God and heaven were visualized. The most wonderful example

I have ever seen in a service of praise was at Spurgeon's tabernacle when Mr.
Spurgeon was alive, and to hear the hearty singing of three thousand voices was an experience of Christian worship which would be hard to equal.

Advertiser Patterns

A FROCK WITH YOUTHFUL LINES.

2790—This model may be finished with the tunic. The skirt is a two-piece style. The sleeve is close-fitting below the elbow. Puffed voile or silk, with satin or crepe, would be good for this design. It is also nice for gabardine, singham, balise, lawn, and organdy.

The pattern is in three sizes—16, 18 and 20 years. Size 18 requires 5 yards of 44-inch material. Width of skirt at lower edge is about 1 1/2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

ARE MEN LONELIER THAN WOMEN?

Which is lonelier, man or woman? Is a question which has been creating a very lively controversy in the Detroit Free Press, and which might appeal to Cynthia Grey's correspondents. Both sexes claim to be lonely in the many letters which have filled the Detroit mail-box for the last week or so. What do the Pageites think about it?

Here is a quotation from one of the Detroit letters, which may give some idea of the spirit in which the readers there are approaching the subject:

"I wish in some way I could chaperon a crowd of these lonely young ones on a picnic where we could have a real old-fashioned good time, for I, too, get lonesome sometimes in this big bustling city."

"If some middle-aged lady would chance to read this, one who is desirous of a friend to go shopping, to the movies, or on an excursion, I would be glad to hear from her, also from others. Trusting some way will be provided to dispel 'Old lonesome' from our hearts, consider me a friend to all."

Now what do you think about it? I wonder if people living in the country are lonelier than those in the city?

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Late Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Dear Miss Grey.—This is my first letter to your club. I enjoy reading your column very much. I am in the fourth class and writing for entrance.
Can you tell me the life of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as to where he was born, when time when he entered parliament, times and age when he died. POLLY.

Ans.—It seems difficult to give the facts of the great Liberal leader's life in a few words, but I think the following covers to some extent the chief events of his career. The late Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier was born on November 20, 1841, in the French-Canadian parish of St. Lin, Quebec Province. His father, Charles Laurier, was a land surveyor.

Sir Wilfrid was educated at the parish school at St. Lin and afterwards at New Glasgow. Later he attended Assumption College, and in 1861, at the age of 20, he entered a law office in Montreal. In 1871 Laurier resided in the Legislature of Quebec for the constituency of Drummond and Arthursburg. In 1874 Laurier resigned his seat to enter the federal arena, and was again elected to represent the above constituency. In 1896 he became premier of Canada, and remained leader of the Opposition since 1911, upon the defeat of the Liberal party. In 1918 Sir Wilfrid was married to Miss. Zoe Lafontaine of Montreal.

who survives him. Sir Wilfrid died on February 17, 1919, at Ottawa.

the strains of "Lohengrin's" music.
