New York, Jan. 26.—Broomhall sent the following cable from Liverpool today: "Flour was firm today, with native offers light and foreign arrivals small. Oats were firm, with arrivals moderate: consumption good, and other feeding grains scarce. There were no shipments from Argentina for the week, with stocks there light, and nothing is offered from Chile. Barley and rye were strong, with export offers scarce and continental ab-sorption large. Stocks everywhere are small. Provisions were strong. There continued to be a good demand for bacon, lard and backs, with spot advancing. Ex-ports of meat from Argentina for the week were light and all to the United Kingdom. Therefore, the demand from the continent is urgent. Freight rates are firm. "The weather in Argenting is unsetted Porte). No. 1 northern, $1.93. No. 2 northern, $1.93. No. 3 northern, $1.93.
