Going Back To Simple Standards

Washington, May 17.—(By Canadian Press).—Iceland has decided to return to the simple life and test the primitive standards of living of the days before mankind let factories supply its needs. U. S. Consul General Marion Lethbride at Copenhagen has sent the Department of Commerce a report on the new law of the Icelandic Parliament, effective for two years, which greatly extends the list of articles prohibited from import.

barred. When present footwear stocks are exhausted the population will have to use Icelandic hairy socklin shoes. Importation of nearly all dry goods is prohibited and home-spun will soon be the vogue.

The exclusion list includes all kinds of bread, butter and margarine, cheese, eggs, fruits, leather goods, oils, soap, furniture, pictures, films, watches, clocks, motorcycles, automobiles and all jewelry and novelties.

The law was adopted as one step to improve the value of the Icelandic crown.

Ready made clothing and shoes are Minard's Liniment for Distemper.

Try Old Dutch for Windows

Luxurious Travel at Moderate Rates

The "A" boats, "Andania," "Antonia" and "Austonia," sailing from Montreal to Europe, are especially designed to provide the highest degree of comfort at a moderate fare.

There is only one class of cabin passengers. The ships are large and equipped throughout in a way that makes ocean travelling an unalloyed pleasure. The cuisine and personal services are the very best and are to the highest standard which has made the Cunard Line famous during eighty-four years of ocean service.

Kitchen work a pleasure with a new Kootenay

THINK of it—a bright, new Kootenay—with its burnished top, white nickel washable oven, roomy warming closet and generous water reservoir.

Room enough on cooking top to boil a half-dozen things at once and for the wash boiler on wash day—a wonderful oven with an even heat that will bake everything to perfection—an oven that heats quickly and one that holds its heat with a small fire.

Why shouldn't you replace your worn-out stove with the economical and convenient Kootenay?
