

BOXERS HOME FROM TORONTO

Tom Foley Speaks of Bouts in Which Maritime Lads Competed.

The Maritime Province boxers who took part in the Olympic trials at Toronto returned at noon today, accompanied by Tom Foley, trainer, and William Keating, secretary of St. Mary's Club at Halifax. The boxers who returned were: Louis Donovan, St. John; "Nixey" Kennedy, Halifax; James Cruickshank, "the Fighting Coy" Sydney; George Wright and Billy Cavanaugh of Westville, N. S.

FIVE MATCHES ARE WON BY WESTFIELD

Play in C. P. R. Section of Tennis League is Begun.

Westfield won five of the seven matches played in the first game on the C. P. R. section of the Suburban Tennis League, Saturday afternoon, with Grand Bay as opponents. The mixed doubles event was won by Miss Ewing and A. B. Gilbert. Other results were: Ladies' Singles, Miss M. Sorel (W.) won from Miss Newcomb.

Reid & Reid Chiropractors.

Office opened to the public on and after June 23, 1924, at Dunlop Hotel block, King Square, St. John, N. B. Phone 8424. 16816-6-27

Notices of Births, Marriages and Deaths, 50 cents.

BIRTHS

ABBOTT—On June 21, to Mr. and Mrs. P. Abbott, a British, a daughter.

MARRIAGES

HUMPHRIES-KENWALL At 98 1/2, Main street, St. John, on Wednesday, June 18, by the Rev. J. S. Bonnell, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Ada May Humphries to Percy Gordon Kenwall.

DEATHS

CLEMENT—Suddenly, at the General Public Hospital, on June 22, 1924, Georgina Clement, wife of H. J. Clement of Fort William, Ontario, leaving her husband and three children to mourn.

YARDE—At his residence, 42 Moore street, on June 22, 1924, Bartholomew Yarde, leaving his wife, one sister and two adopted sons to mourn.

GREEN'S DINING HALL King Square BREAKFAST 40c DINNER 60c SUPPER 60c NOON, 12-2:30 P.M. 5-8. 12-27-1924

THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER VALLEY STORM SWEEP

Chicago, June 22.—One of the worst storms in years swept almost the entire upper Mississippi River Valley late yesterday, taking at least four lives and doing hundreds of thousands of dollars property damage in Nebraska, South Dakota, Minnesota and Illinois were hit by the high winds and hard rains. Three persons were killed in Chicago and one in Minnesota.

PERSONALS

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., M. P., arrived in the city from Ottawa on Saturday and left at 11 a.m. for the capital yesterday afternoon. Herbert Cassidy, son of Mrs. Clara A. Cassidy, Main street, left for Boston, Saturday evening, where he will remain for some time. Mr. Cassidy recently graduated from the Modern Business College. He expects to take up commercial life after a vacation.

Miss Olive Stairs and Roy Tapley of Woodstock are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. T. H. Geldart, who has been ill for some time and is still confined to bed at the home of Mrs. Gillespie, 20 Rodney street, West St. John.

B. C. ELECTIONS

Victoria, B. C., June 22.—According to a report in government circles and among close friends of the Hon. John Oliver, the premier intends to retire from politics following his defeat in Victoria on Friday. His friends are urging him to remain and A. D. Peterson, member for Delta, has offered to retire in his favor in that seat, but the premier is exhausted and is feeling his defeat keenly.

ATTEMPTED MURDER CHARGE AGAINST CHATHAM HEAD MAN

Basil Malley of Chatham Head, is in the provincial jail at Newcastle charged with attempted murder and George Bennett, of the same place, is badly wounded following a quarrel Saturday evening at Chatham Head.

OFF TO SUSSEX

A party of fifty soldiers came in on the Montreal train today from Woodstock and McAdam Junction. They are part of the Carleton Light Infantry and are going into camp at Sussex.

$58.50

$58.50 or $65.00 on the club plan. Every Phonograph Guaranteed or Money Back.

TRAFFIC AND RADIO POLICE SUBJECTS

Chiefs Are to Hold International Meeting in Montreal in July.

Detroit, June 22.—Standardization of traffic regulations, radio communication as a means of increasing police efficiency, adoption of a secret telegraphic code, and discussion of methods of checking the promiscuous sale of firearms, are the principal subjects of the annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police to be held in Montreal July 14-17. William P. Rutledge, superintendent of police of Detroit, is president.

A report on the work done by the Division of Criminal Identification and Police Informants at Washington, D. C., also will be heard. The division is a combination of full police records of cities represented by members in the association, and records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification of the United States Department of Justice, making available at all times to the police of the country detailed information concerning criminals of the world.

President Rutledge has devoted considerable attention to traffic regulation. The convention for the first time will be attended by representatives of automobile and traffic associations who will present their views on means for facilitating prompt motor car movement and decreasing the number of traffic casualties.

DEALING WITH SHAD QUESTION

(Special to Times-Star.) Fredericton, June 22.—The Biological Board of Canada has under consideration the problem of the propagation of shad in St. John River waters, by removing the shad eggs after deposit and fertilization in the colder waters of the upper river to the warm brackish water near the mouth. This step is considered because of the serious depletion of shad in all five shad associations of Canada, which catch having fallen from 2,500,000 pounds in 1915 to 200,000 pounds in 1921.

Over fishing in the river, which has destroyed the fish when on their way to spawn, is one reason and the loss of eggs by deposit in too cold water is another. The Bay of Fundy and St. John harbor shad fisheries have been seriously affected by the same over fishing in the river.

Dr. A. Knight, chairman of the Biological Board, has been in Fredericton in that connection, leaving for the Miramichi today. The proposition is to have a shorter open season for shad on the St. John River for a period long enough to demonstrate that the number of fish can be increased by the removal of the eggs by the department of fisheries to brackish water. Dr. Knight says that four years will demonstrate the increase in the resulting benefit of fishermen and consumer. Some years ago the depletion of shad became so serious that a close season for two years was imposed.

Investigation has shown that instead of not giving the shad proper guidance for all eggs laid in water of 50 degrees per cent will live and in brackish water more than three or four times that number will hatch out.

Dr. Philip Cox of the University of New Brunswick is one of the members of the biological board.

RURAL DOINGS

Swampfog Item—Oscar Boon was wearing gravel in his shoes the other day so he could forget his toothache.

Lebanon Gazette.—We notice that many of our exchanges are giving us credit now. We trust their example will be emulated by the grocer and butcher at home.

Pollville Star.—Jim Nixon rode to church last Sunday on his heavy farm tractor. He says he's got good and tired of taking to the ditch with his horse and wagon every time he met one of those dod-blasted automobiles, so he thought he'd ride down the road on a rig they couldn't jar.

A truant officer made a call at the home of a pupil whose absence had been reported for a week.

"Mikey is now past his thirteenth year," said the boy's mother, "and his father think he's after havin' schoolin' enough."

"Schooling enough?" repeated the officer. "Why, I did not finish my education until I was twenty-three."

"Be that so?" said the woman in amazement. Then, reassuredly, after a thoughtful pause, "Well, so've see that boy of ours has b-r-ains."

And we will send this Phonograph to your home. There is only a limited number to be sold. These famous Phonographs will play all records and are made in genuine walnut and mahogany.

Have plenty of music in your home. JOIN THE CLUB PLAN No. 1—$1.00 down and we will send this Phonograph to your home.

No. 2—No interest or extra charges. No. 3—No collectors going to your door. No. 4—Balance in any monthly payments. Come in early—Free demonstration.

AMLAND BROS., LTD. 19 Waterloo Street

HONORS EVEN AS RAIN STOPS PLAY

Renforth and Drury Cove Each Take Three Tennis Events.

Honors were even when rain caused postponement of the tennis tourney Saturday afternoon at Renforth between Renforth and Drury Cove, each club having won three events. The outstanding play of the day centred in the mixed doubles match between "Bud" McInerney and Mrs. P. B. Cross, Renforth, and J. H. Drumme and Miss Jean Knight, Drury Cove, which was halted by rain with the first set score standing at 5 to 8. Play will be continued from this point when the tourney is resumed some time this week. Other matches that will be played this week are one men's doubles event, two ladies doubles, and one mixed doubles. The results Saturday were: Men's singles—J. P. McInerney (R), defeated B. M. Ryan, 6-0, 7-5. Men's doubles—B. M. Ryan and J. H. Drumme (D. C.), defeated L. Ryan and A. Campbell. H. Morton and C. Price (R), defeated A. C. Clark and R. Thorne. H. W. Wilson and T. F. Drumme (D. C.), defeated Nesbit and Barnes. C. V. Waldorf and L. H. Sandall (D. C.), defeated S. Clarke and Fowler. Ladies' singles—Miss G. Price (R), defeated Mrs. Carl Brown (D. C.)

THE DOLLAR TODAY. New York, June 22.—Sterling exchange dull. Demand rates (in cents): Great Britain, 4.33 1/2; France, 5.36; Italy, 4.52; Germany (per trillion), 2.3; Canadian dollars, 1.12-1/2 per cent. Discount.

THE ROTARY CLUB. Rotarian H. G. Coy of Anacosta, Montana, was a guest at today's Rotary Club luncheon. It is his first visit to St. John in 37 years. Robert Reid presided today. Palmer Kinsman, A. L. Foster, E. J. Ferry, Alex. Wilson, Dr. Coupe, president; F. W. Munro, Robert Hawker, E. R. W. Ingraham, and Herbert Crockett.

NOVELTY SHOWER. A delightful novelty shower in honor of Miss Marjorie Tower was given on Saturday evening at the home of Rev. Geo. Orman, 7 Burpee avenue. The shower was in charge of Mrs. Geo. Orman and Mrs. C. T. Jones, who were joint hostesses. The house was tastefully decorated with lilacs, with a profusion of cups and hearts. In the dining room the table was set under a white bell, from which was suspended a large cupid doll, dressed as a charming bride. After her friends assembled, Rev. Mr. Orman, on behalf of the company, wished the bride-elect the congratulations of those present. Miss Helen Silliphant, niece of the guest of honor, wheeled a beautiful carriage laden with gifts into the room. The evening passed with games and music. Those in charge were the Misses Nellie and Blanche Jones. The party broke up wishing Miss Tower a happy future.

Windsor, Ont., June 23.—The last of about 30 men brought in to take the places of striking Windsor Post office workers quit his job on Saturday afternoon and the Windsor post office was unmaneuvered Saturday. The men threw up their jobs. It is reported, but that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

LOCAL NEWS

TRAVEL HEAVY. The Boston train was 45 minutes late today and came in after the Montreal. Heavy traffic was given as the cause of the delay. The Boston had more than 200 passengers for points east.

GEORGE LAWSON ILL.

Friends of George M. Lawson, well known contractor, will regret to know that he is a patient in the General Public Hospital, suffering from a severe attack of erysipelas.

DESTROYING TREES

Complaint is made that horses of delivery teams are destroying first trees in Princess street. This has before been the subject of complaint.

WILL DISCUSS PAVING MATTER

The award of the tender for the paving of the highway from the railway crossing to Moore's Mill, in the parish of Lancaster, will be discussed at a meeting of citizens to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Temperance Hall, Fairville.

GO TO CONVENTION

The 60th annual convention of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society will open in Fredericton on Wednesday. Among those going from St. John are George F. Coupe, president; F. W. Munro, Robert Hawker, E. R. W. Ingraham, and Herbert Crockett.

THE ROTARY CLUB.

Rotarian H. G. Coy of Anacosta, Montana, was a guest at today's Rotary Club luncheon. It is his first visit to St. John in 37 years. Robert Reid presided today. Palmer Kinsman, A. L. Foster, E. J. Ferry, Alex. Wilson, Dr. Coupe, president; F. W. Munro, Robert Hawker, E. R. W. Ingraham, and Herbert Crockett.

RAILWAY ENGINEERS.

Toronto, June 23.—The Postal workers strike committee at the Labor Temple this morning announced that the following telegram had been sent to the Montreal strike committee: "Please accept offer of Railway Engineers to man no more trains carrying mail. Send our representatives to see joint hostesses. The house was tastefully decorated with lilacs, with a profusion of cups and hearts. In the dining room the table was set under a white bell, from which was suspended a large cupid doll, dressed as a charming bride. After her friends assembled, Rev. Mr. Orman, on behalf of the company, wished the bride-elect the congratulations of those present. Miss Helen Silliphant, niece of the guest of honor, wheeled a beautiful carriage laden with gifts into the room. The evening passed with games and music. Those in charge were the Misses Nellie and Blanche Jones. The party broke up wishing Miss Tower a happy future."

NOVELTY SHOWER.

A delightful novelty shower in honor of Miss Marjorie Tower was given on Saturday evening at the home of Rev. Geo. Orman, 7 Burpee avenue. The shower was in charge of Mrs. Geo. Orman and Mrs. C. T. Jones, who were joint hostesses. The house was tastefully decorated with lilacs, with a profusion of cups and hearts. In the dining room the table was set under a white bell, from which was suspended a large cupid doll, dressed as a charming bride. After her friends assembled, Rev. Mr. Orman, on behalf of the company, wished the bride-elect the congratulations of those present. Miss Helen Silliphant, niece of the guest of honor, wheeled a beautiful carriage laden with gifts into the room. The evening passed with games and music. Those in charge were the Misses Nellie and Blanche Jones. The party broke up wishing Miss Tower a happy future."

Windsor, Ont., June 23.—The last of about 30 men brought in to take the places of striking Windsor Post office workers quit his job on Saturday afternoon and the Windsor post office was unmaneuvered Saturday. The men threw up their jobs. It is reported, but that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right to protection. It is hard to make a suggestion that will be practical. The one which has already been given, as to all dogs being kept on leash, is a good one. Perhaps an exception could be made of any dog which has been known to save lives, or those two noble animals, the St. Bernard and Newfoundland breeds. But it is a well known fact that the majority of the dogs in the city are for the most part useless except as pets, and I know of many fine houses which have been made very unsanitary because of them. I was told only yesterday by a lady who has several tenants that she would rather rent a house to a tenant with six small children than one dog. There should be some way of limiting the number of dogs in private houses in which other people reside, and if dogs are to be raised for breeding or prize purposes, let it be in a place that purpose, away from where people reside. If some such law were enforced, our city would be much more beautiful and sanitary than it is. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am for the present, PROPERTY OWNER.

But that is only half of the story. Every one of those dogs comes up on my verandah, wet day or fine day, it being dog nature to follow in the tracks of another, and everybody knows what it means. I am sure it is no exaggeration to say that after a wet day you could not put a nickel down on the verandah floor without covering a dog track. Now, if any of the dog owners or dog lovers would like the expense of fencing my grounds, or the privilege of scrubbing my verandah floor, doors and posts, several times a day, he may have it. But if not, he had better offer a better suggestion than has yet appeared.

And there is another thing which surely should receive the attention of our city lawmakers. The kindly eye, the trusting heart of a dog, each in itself is a beautiful thing. But there is one thing in life more beautiful, and that is the innocent mind of a little child. I am sure that our Commissioner of Public Safety is not a dog hater. There are very few dog haters in this city. Personally I have never seen one. I have not the slightest doubt that the Commissioner is as much a lover of dogs as anyone. But he is also a representative of the taxpayer, and as such he realizes that the property-owner has a right