CONFRONTS ALDERMEN IN REGULAR SESSION

They Voted Money to Purchase a Site -Much Discussion - Other Business Transacted.

The library question again agitated the city council last night. Ald. Stewart precipitated the discussion by his motion that the sum of $4,500 be included in the estimates for the purchase of a site. Ald. Grahame opposed the motion, repeating his arguments against accepting the gift, while Ald. Barnard put forth a final appeal for the lot opposite the post office as a site. Ultimately the nt was voted. It was also decided on the recommendation of the streets, tridges and sewers committee to transfer the care and maintenance of the sewers from the sanitary officer to the

J. N. Muir again wrote on the question of water facilities for his place.
There was an undoubted tone of defiance and disapproval in the letter which wound up with the statement that the writer intended to get water connection anyhow, and no thanks to the council.
The city engineer and purchasing agent recommended that the contract for sprinkling be awarded to William Williams, whose tender was 49 cents per hour day or night. There were five tenders, and Mr. Williams's was the lowest.

Ald. Yates declared that the by-law was only a pretence, a scheme to select the lot on the corner of Yates and Blanchard streets.

Ald, Kinsman favored voting the $4,-500. He didn't consider the lot at the bridge central enough. The library would have to be built because the people had voted for it, but he felt that it would cost them a great deal of money Ald. Yates observed that the ratepayers had accepted the gift, but opposed spending any money on a site—just what Ald. Stewart wanted to do.

Ald. Stewart pointed out in reply that the reason the ratepayers turned down the site by-law was that they wouldn't vote $15,000 for it. As to the Yates street site, there was a difference amount-ing to the cost of a lot in its favor when mpared with the Government street site, because of the superior foundation it would afford.

The Mayor said that this sum should ertainly be included in the estimates. Ald. Cameron felt that it was compulory on the council to do something in view of the decision of the people. He thought the public wanted that library, and the council as an instrument in their hands had to provide it. He would vote
