MAHONS LIMITED

June 24, 1913—Lord Kitchener born June 24, 1850.

It's Time for Cool Things such as
Voiles, Crepes, Gingham, etc.

Do you remember Ben Brummel's recipe for elegance in dress—
No perfume, but plenty of clean things washed and dried in fresh country air and sunshine.
—and a plain little wash frock, fresh and simple, is often far more becoming than an expensive and elaborate silk.

We have a rainbow group of wash fabrics for summertime frocks—not all the colors combined in one material, of course; the beauty of the rainbow lies in the fact that it is far away—but one color at a time, either alone or softened by touches of white.

For morning wear:
Pretty Prints—Light, dark and medium tones, stripes, spots and floral patterns. The yard, 14c.
Crinkled Seersuckers—Light and dark; finely striped, with and without border. The yard, 15c.
Cool Gingham—Plain colors, stripes, checks and plaids; a variety of designs. The yard, 15c. to 25c.

For afternoon wear:
Dressy Voiles—Silk striped, silk corded, or plain with open-work border. Various colors, double width. The yard, 50 and 75c.
Clinging Crepes—Plain and spotted; white, sky, navy, cream, old blue, peach. 40 in. wide. 50c. the yard.
Summery Muslins—With broad stripes, open spots, or shower-of-hail pattern finely striped and bordered in contrasting color. The yard, 18c.

For general wear: ratine, whipcord, Bedford cord, linen, pigme.

GEORGE BELL MOVES UP
WIDELY KNOWN RAILROAD OFFICIAL IS PROMOTED.

In Thirty-Five Years' Montreal Man Has Risen From the Bottom of the Ladder to Be Passenger Traffic Manager of the Entire Grand Trunk System—Is Member of Many Associations.

G. T. Bell has been appointed passenger traffic manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific system and the Grand Trunk Pacific and Steamship Companies. Mr. Bell is one of the best known men in America and his appointment is a well-earned tribute to a long and successful career. He was born in Montreal in 1861 and entered the railway service when he was 17.

George T. Bell, years of age. He worked his way up through the different offices until April, 1888, when he was appointed chief clerk to the general passenger agent at Montreal. From that time his promotion was rapid. In 1898 he became first assistant general passenger and ticket agent at Montreal on the same system. In 1908 he was made general passenger and ticket agent of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and the Grand Trunk Pacific and Steamship Companies, which comprises the chief railway traffic of the American Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents, and the Canadian Club, of Montreal, and a member of the various traffic and social clubs in Canada and the U.S., including St. James' Club, Montreal.

Quaint Remedies.
Tiger's flesh and new-born puppies were among old remedies, said Dr. F. M. Sandwith, during the course of a lecture which he delivered at the City of London School recently.

One book, he said, recommended a live spider to be rubbed in butter and formed into a pill and then swallowed as an antidote to jaundice. Vipers were held in high esteem, and a brood made from them was said to strengthen the eyesight. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries powdered mummies were prescribed, and so great was the demand that fraud led to more mummies being supplied than ever came out of Egypt.

It must be remembered that the rational use of these remedies was quite modern. In some of the older herbal works a striking fact was the constant recommendation of various remedies for bruises which gave one some idea of the manner of the day.

John Gennard, who was chief gardener of Lord Burleigh's garden in the Strand, and had a garden of his own in Holborn, London, published a book in 1597 as his own, although it was in fact a translation of a Belgian herbal. Gennard recommended "Solomon's seal" for the taking away in one night of the blackness of bruises caused by falls, "or women's wifely hands in tumbling upon their husband's face, or such like."—Manchester Evening News.

A Generous Judge.
Lord Blackburn was one of the most conscientious men that ever lived, and he was not only a judge but a lawyer. He was a man of great integrity and was always ready to do what was right. He was a man of great integrity and was always ready to do what was right.

You can save your Old China.

Many and many a housekeeper has a tea or a dinner set that has been in the family for a great many years. Sets that have been handed down from one generation to another. Sets that have become precious on account of their associations. Sets that cannot be valued in dollars and cents. Like everything else, time and usage will have their effect. Some pieces have become broken. Don't worry about this, don't be annoyed. We can repair these for you. We can send them away to experts who repair them by riveting. As a matter of fact, we do a nice little business in just this way. Our charges are very reasonable, too. Oh, yes, we can also have glassware repaired. Bring along your broken China and glassware and let us have it repaired for you.
