ARTICLE BY REV. DR. WILSON.

The July number of The Treasury of Religious Thought for July, published in New York, contains an article on The Third Gospel, by Rev. Robert Wilson, Ph. D., St. John.

Dr. Wilson first treats of the authority of this gospel, showing that not only Christian writers, but Roman and other non-Christians recognize St.
Luke as the author. After stating briefly what is known of the personality of this apostle and setting forth that the right of this gospel to a place in the sacred canon is undoubted, Dr.
Wilson enters into a critical study and analysis of it, and of its importance as a part of the New Testament narrative. The article, which is admirably written, fills some four and a half pages of the magazine.

LOCAL NEWS.

James R. McLean has been appointed inspector of the new armory which is to be erected at Sussex.

Harry Johnston, driver of No. 3 engine, broke a small bone in his foot Friday evening while sliding from the driver's room to the engine room floor.

Saturday was pay day at the Sackville water works. About 90 men were on the pay roll and the wages for the fortnight amount to over $1,200.

At the final session of the convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Detroit, last night, Rev. J. A.
Richardson gave an address on His Life.

The Roses and the Caribou team will play this afternoon and tomorrow on the Shamrock grounds. Driscoll and Mahoney will be the Roses' battery today.

Rev. H. N. Brown, of New York, will conduct the camp meeting series this year at Berwick, N. S. Rev. A.
B. Higgins is superintendent, and Rev. J. M. Fisher is secretary.

Fenton and Littlejohn, who are to box tonight at the Victoria, weighed in today at noon in J. McLaughlin's place, King Square. Both men struck the weight limit of one hundred and forty pounds.

H. Wheeler, who with W. G. Ringler and C. J. Ruppert, two other American capitalists, is talking of starting a large brewery in Halifax, is coming to St. John to look into this town as a possible location for the industry.

The annual retreat of the Catholic clergy of the diocese of St. John will commence at St. Joseph's College, Memramcook today. It will be conducted by Rev. Francis McCarthy, S. J., New York. His lordship the bishop and most of the priests in St. John left today for Memramcook and will be absent until Saturday.

Dr. B. C. Borden, president of Mt.
Allison ladies' college, with his family, has been spending a couple of weeks at Avonport, N. S. Dr. Borden spoke on educational subjects at the Lawrencetown Methodist church Sunday morning and at Bridgetown in the evening.

BISHOP SWEENEY'S WILL.

In the cathedral yesterday morning Bishop Casey stated that the late Bishop Sweeney left in cash the sum of $11,250. It should only have cost $95.50 to probate the will, but as he was compelled to prove it in solemn form the following costs had been incurred: For probate stamps, $34.10 For publishing citations, $84.10 Stenographer's fees, $7.60 To Dr. Pugsley (Mrs. Travers' lawyer), 172.85
To our own lawyer, 193.25

Total, $545.10 His lordship said that in proving the will as had been done, and disputing the claim of Mrs. Travers he had merely carried out the wishes of the late bishop, who had twice told him that everything he had he would leave to his successor.

THE W. S. HARKINS CO.

The W. S. Harkins Co. closed a brief engagement at the Opera house on Saturday evening. Mr. Harkins will return for a longer season in October.
His company will include Miss Jessie Bonstelle and other leading members of the present one, of whom Miss Dora Cheever, Miss Julia Gordon, A. H. Stur-art, Emmet C. King and Eugene Frazier have found especial favors with St. John audiences. Mr. Harkins is now closing a successful season of 33 weeks, and has decidedly strengthened his popularity with provincial audiences as a theatrical manager.

HEARTY WELCOME

Extended By St. John to Lord and Lady Minto.

Formal Address—Fire Department

Inspection—This Afternoon and Evening's Programme.

The governor general and party arrived in St. John from Digby last evening, shortly after seven o'clock, on board the cruiser Curlew. Lord Minto stood on the bridge with Capt.
Pratt as the little steamer swung in to the Pettigill wharf, opposite the West India line warehouse.

All the afternoon crowds had been waiting on the water front, and when the vessel was at last seen coming up the harbor the multitude increased.
The steamers lying at the adjoining wharves were crowded with people, and every place within reach made an eager sightseer. It was the biggest body of people that had gathered in the city on any such occasion for years.

The ships in the harbor and many of the buildings in the principal portion of the city were gaily decorated.

The vice-regal party were greeted when they stepped ashore by Mayor Daniel, and were escorted through the cheering crowd to their carriages. They went immediately to the Royal hotel, where the complete floor over the new ladies' parlor was set apart for them.

At the hotel another cheering crowd greeted their arrival. The party accompanied their excellencies are their daughters, Lady Ellen and Lady Ruby Elliot, Capt. A. C. Bell, A. D. C., A. F. Sladen, private secretary; Arthur Guise, comptroller, and five attendants.

From all the public buildings and from many private houses and the principal stores flags were flying and decorations floated gaily in the breeze in honor of their excellencies, the Governor General and the Countess of Minto. The reception tendered them by the citizens of St. John this morning was a spontaneous and enthusiastic one. For two or three hours before the vice-regal party were due at the council chamber, there to receive the civic address, crowds began to collect.

The streets had a holiday appearance, with the floating bunting from the buildings and the light dresses of the many ladies, who were out to witness the official reception.

King square was practically alive with people, and the court house, respondent in its new furnishing, was thronged with those who came to see the change wrought in it under the skilful hands of the decorators. And indeed they were to be congratulated.

Shortly before eleven o'clock the guard of honor from the 52nd regiment, under the command of Major Magee, with the following officers and N. C. O.'s: Lieuts. Perley and Mc-Millan, Col. Markham, Miss Markham, Hon. H. A. McKeown, G. S.
Mayes, Lt. Col. Tucker, M. P., S. S.
McGoldrick, D. J. Purdy, M. P., S. S.
Fairweather, Chief Justice Tuck, Miss L. Gardiner, Miss Green, Dr. Skinner, Mrs. W. H. Scovill, Senator Dever, P.
S. McNutt, Chief Clerk, E. H. McAlpine, W. Murdoch, Robert Sims, Collector Lockhart, the Misses Lockhart, Lieutenant Colonel G. West Jones, Mrs. Jones, Judge Ritchie, Mrs.
Ritchie, A. O. Skinner, Mrs. C. N. Skinner, ex-Ald. Lewis, William Roop, R.
J. Walsh, Senator Ellis, Mrs. Calhoun, Francis Walker, Mrs. Thos. Walker, Dr. Steeves, Mrs. Steeves, Mrs. Daniel,
T. L. Hay, Miss Jack, Hon. A. T.
Dunn, J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., Hon. C.
N. Skinner, H. E. Wardroper.

The vice-regal party were met at the court house by Mayor Daniel and several members of the aldermen, and Lord and Lady Minto were conducted to seats on the dais. Their entrance was the signal for applause.

Mayor Daniel then read the following address to his excellency:

His Excellency, the Right Honorable Sir Gilbert John Elliot, Earl of Minto and Viscount Melgund, of Melgund, County of Forfar, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom; Baron Minto, of Minto, County of Roxburgh, in the Peerage of Great Britain; Baronet of Nova Scotia, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, etc., etc., Governor General of Canada:

May it please your Excellency, The citizens of St. John on this occasion of your first visit to this city, desire to welcome you as the representative of Our Sovereign, in demonstrating the unity of whose empire you have occasion to perform a conspicuous part when the components of our great colonial system were welded into one with the Mother Land by the strenuous heat of war, yours was the opportunity to show the loyalty, the patriotism and the self-sacrifice of the people, and no less, when the feeling of personal bereavement by the death of our late beloved Sovereign swept over the Empire, it was your privilege to express the heart-felt sorrow of our people. With such evidence of the devotion of the people to the names of those who have been exponents of national feeling, we therefore, in the city of the Loyalists, feel that a recognition of your adequate performance of such duties is peculiarly appropriate at this time.

We would also invite your attention to the commercial development for which the city has struggled almost from the beginning of many years, and the realization of which we trust has begun in earnest. By such visits as these we hope to increase our efforts and capacity may become better known, not only throughout our Dominion, but throughout the Empire.

To the Countess of Minto, in her present position, the successor of a line of Miss Deborah Burit, at the age of seventy-two years, she leaves two brothers.

greeting and express the hope that her stay in our city may be fruitful of many pleasant recollections.
It is noteworthy that the Common Council of the City of St. John has caused the common seal of the said city to be hereunto affixed the twenty-ninth day of July, A. D.
1901.

H. E. WARDROPER, J. W. DANIEL,
Common Clerk, Mayor.

Lord Minto in reply said: Mr. Mayor and citizens of St. John, ladies and gentlemen: As you tell me, this is the first official visit which I have paid to St. John, and I assure you that I appreciate the magnificent and enthusiastic welcome which you have given me as your governor general. I am proud to make the acquaintance of those who have played so distinguished a part in the history of the dominion.

You remind me that during my appointment Canada has passed through stirring times, and that the times will make an epoch in the history of Canada. You have contributed your splendid contingents and I have taken an interest in them and their departure. They fought side by side with the regular regiments and have covered themselves with glory. You have lost many of your gallant sons, and a deep gloom has been cast over many happy homes.
All recognized that what we have gained has been repaid by the strength gained by the empire and the recognition of that strength through all the world.

You remind me that we have shared in a great sorrow for our greatest queen, a sympathetic and beloved woman, whom all adored.

When yesterday I entered your harbor I was struck with the amount of shipping and the evidences of prosperity. Joined with the energy of your citizens a fast ocean service will insure for St. John the prosperity she deserves.

I thank you for your welcome to me and Lady Minto. We will not forget the spontaneous exhibition of welcome of yesterday. Such a spontaneous exhibition appeals more to me than the greatest organized reception. (Applause.)

Mayor Daniel then presented to their excellencies Senator Ellis, Ald. Macrae, Maxwell, McGoldrick, Seaton, White, Colwell, Waring, Christie, Hilyard, Robinson, Millidge, McMillan, Armstrong, Baxter, Common Clerk Wardroper and Recorder Skinner.

His worship then said that as the time of their excellencies was limited adjustment would be made immediately to the City hall to witness the turnout of the firemen. Three cheers were then given for Lord and Lady Minto, and on their appearance at the court house door the applause broke out again.

The big crowd at the place of reception was splendidly handled by Deputy Chief Jenkins, with Sergt. Campbell, Sergt. Hastings and Officer Killen.

When the party arrived at the City hall about seven o'clock the firemen twenty-six, by Ald Seaton, chairman of the board of public safety. His excellency on the balcony of the building timed the firemen. In a very short time the fire engines and carts arrived.
Number one hose reel was the first on the spot, and as each part of the fire fighting apparatus of the city arrived it was cheered to the echo. On the way down one of the wheels of number one salvage corps' cart was broken. The turnout was an exceedingly creditable one to the city, the firemen and Chief Kerr. After his excellency had inspected the apparatus the party drove to the Royal hotel.

At three o'clock this afternoon the vice-regal party will be taken for a drive through the park, to the falls, to Cushings' pulp mill, and probably around by way of Carleton, accompanied by the mayor and members of the common council. At five o'clock this evening a public reception will be held in the council chamber of the court house, at which the citizens will have an opportunity to pay their respects and be presented to their excellencies. Music will be provided by Harrison's orchestra, and it is hoped that the attendance will be large.

Tomorrow morning Their Excellencies will go to Fredericton, returning that evening. They will spend Wednesday in the city, when as one of the entertainments they will be taken for a trip around the harbor and river as the guests of His Worship the Mayor and Mrs. Daniel. Thursday they leave for St. Andrews and St. Stephen, returning to St. John Friday night.

Saturday will be spent in the city, and on Saturday night the vice-regal party will depart for Quebec.

The vice-regal party will leave for Fredericton tomorrow on a special train, leaving here about 11 o'clock.
The Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. McEllaine, accompanied by the members of the government and their ladies, leave on the regular train in the morning.
Their excellencies will be met at Fredericton by the mayor and councillors, and after a drive about town will be entertained at luncheon at the Queen Hotel by the Lieut.-Governor, after which a civic address will be presented on the steps of the government buildings and a reception held in the assembly rooms. Returning the party will leave Fredericton on a special at five o'clock.

A REMARKABLE DAHLIA.

The Star received from the garden of Mrs. William Rutledge, 111 Mecklenburg street, this morning a remarkable flower in the form of a three-faced dahlia—three fully formed flowers on a single stalk. Mrs. Rutledge had grown them with two blossoms on the same stalk, but this one has three.
Along with the dahlia came a lovely bunch of white roses, for which the staff beg to return thanks. They are today wearing the white flower of a rosy life.

The death occurred at Smith's Corner, York Co., on Friday of Miss Deborah Burit, at the age of seventy-
two years. She leaves two brothers.

WORKINGMEN'S PANTS.

We make a specialty of Workingmen's Pants. We buy only the most durable material and see that every point is right, and that they are made as well as it is pos-
