

BROAD CARLETON DEFEATED ROCKLAND

In the City League last night the Carleton team sprang a surprise on the fans by defeating the Rocklands, 6-2. The game went eight full innings and after the second inning the ball was of a high order, only two runs being made by each team during the remainder of the contest. The Carletons had made four runs of negativity in the first two innings when he was replaced by Dunlap. Dunlap pitched a good game giving the Carletons only four hits and striking out nine men. Much of the credit for the Carleton's win is due to Seely, their southpaw twirler, who held the Rocklands to one lone hit. Chase's spectacular catch of a long fly to left was a feature of the game.

THE GIRL OF THE GAME

She has the "curve"—she has the speed. She also has "control" to dangle; if it should please she'll try "the squeeze."

Provided it's the proper angle.

She likes a "fast one round the waist" a "salary whip" that's trained and steady.

A "home-run guy" whose batting eye is on "the plate" when meals are ready.

"The diamond?" Yes, it goes with her.

"A good catch" finds her mitts excited.

But through the fight this "beach-erite" calls for "the game" when it's ended.

UHLAN TROTTERING FAST

Cleveland, June 25.—Judged by the form he is showing here in his work-outs, Uhlán, C. K. Billings' trotter, has a good chance of succeeding when he tries for a world's record to wagon at the opening of the Grand Circuit races here in July 7.

Today Uhlán circled the oval at North Randall in 2:04. The world's record of two minutes is held by himself, trotting to a sulky, the great gelding did the mile in 2:03 1/2.

LARGE NUMBER OF BRIDES YESTERDAY

McNeillie-Raymond.

The marriage of Miss Alice Winnifred Raymond, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Raymond, to George Gardner McNeillie, of Vancouver, B. C., took place in St. Mary's church, yesterday afternoon at half past three. In honor of the occasion the church had been decorated by the congregation with white lilies, palms and white roses and presented a most attractive appearance. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Ven. Archbishop Raymond, assisted by His Lordship Bishop Richardson, and the bride was given away by her brother, Rev. W. O. Raymond, of Ann Arbor, Mich. Miss Vera MacLachlan, and Miss Alice McNeillie, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids, while Cecil Kilgour, of Toronto, was best man. The ushers were Messrs. H. B. C. Sturdee, Harold Crooks and Ed. W. Raymond.

The bride's dress was a beautiful creation of ivory duchesse satin, trimmed with princess lace, and she wore a waltz train and veil trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a showy bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were attired in pink broadcloth silk trimmed with honiton lace, and wore large leghorn hats with black velvet crowns, adorned with single roses at the sides. Their bouquets were of pink roses.

Mrs. Raymond, mother of the bride, wore a dress of wisteria marquisette over a wisteria silk and cream lace hat to match, with osprey plume. She carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas. Mrs. Nellie was attired in a becoming green gown and carried roses and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McNeillie received at the residence of the bride's parents, Summer street, the house being decorated with white roses, candles and floral effects. Later they left for St. Andrews, where they remain for a few days, before returning to St. John. They will then proceed West, stopping at the principal cities and points of interest on route and will make their home in Vancouver.

Among the presents were a handsome chest of silver from the congregation and Sunday school of St. Mary's church, and a white prayer book from the Sunday school class formerly taught by Miss Raymond.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James McNeillie, Lindsay, Ont.; Mrs. Arthur King, Kingston, N. Y.; Rev. W. O. Raymond, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mrs. E. H. Booley, Montreal.

O'Neill-McGowan.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The contracting parties were Edward Joseph O'Neill, of St. George, and Miss Mary Agnes McGowan, of this city. Rev. William Duke administered the sacred rite at a nuptial mass. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked charming in a navy tulle-trimmed suit, and large, leghorn hat, trimmed with panache. She carried a showy bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The groom was attired in a grey tulle-trimmed suit and leghorn hat, with pink roses. She also carried a bouquet of pink roses. Arthur Frawley, cousin of the groom, did the honors for him. After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride, 350 Haymarket Square, where a dainty breakfast was served. The bride received many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill left on the Boston boat for Boston and New York, returning by way of Montreal and Toronto. They will reside in St. George.

Anderson-Murray.

In the presence of many friends Charles Wallace Anderson and Miss Catherine Agnes Murray were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception yesterday morning. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock, and the Rev. William Duke administered the sacrament at a nuptial mass. The bride was handsome in a dress of midnight-blue silk, with Irish lace and crystal trimmings. She wore a white Milan hat, with French ostrich feathers, and carried a bride's bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Cora Murray, sister of the bride, looked very attractive, and was daintily arrayed in a creation of cream crepe de chene, trimmed with Venice lace, and a large picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
