Eleven Races
At Fredericton

Horses Have Arrived at Capital for Horse Racing Features of the Exhibition.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Sept. 14.—Most of the horses which will start in the Fredericton 1919 exhibition races arrived here yesterday and today, although it will be tomorrow morning before some of those which raced at St. Stephen on Saturday will be able to get here.

There are eleven races on the programme, with 1400 purses in each, and despite the fact that many horses have lately been put out of commission for racing there promises to be some of the best racing of the season here this week.

Frank J. Power, of Halifax, is to be the starter, and the timers will include Charles W. Bell, of St. John, who has not missed a race meeting in Fredericton for half a century.

There has been a slight revision of the racing programme in connection with the Fredericton exhibition, so as to give as many opportunities as possible for horses to make two starts.

The 220 trot was the only one of the eight races which did not fill and it is being replaced by a named race, which should be one of the best contests of the week. This was opened specially to give a chance for Royal McKinnay, 2:12 1/4, and Jennie Frisco, 2:14 1/4, which have not been entered in the other events, to start, and will virtually be a 2:13 class, with Roy Volo, Bob Mac and The Explorer the others in the race certain to start, and one or two more likely to be added.

The revised racing programme follows:
Tuesday—214 trot and pace, 2:16 trot and pace, and 2:30 trot and pace.
Wednesday—Free-for-all trot and pace, and 2:16 trot.
Thursday—2:15 trot and pace, 2:25 trot and pace, and 2:35 trot.
Friday—2:13 trot and pace, 2:20 trot and pace, and 2:30 trot.

AN ICELANDIC VESSEL ARRIVES
One of the quaint rovers of the sea is here in the person of the Icelandic tern schooner Nanna, registered at the port of Svanborg. At the prow of the vessel is the head and figure of a woman, beautifully carved and certainly a novelty to frequenters of the waterfront, as a figurehead ornament disappeared from the sailing vessel that made this port many years ago. The stern is well painted, however having wielded the brush leav-

VISITED ST. ANDREWS.
The following paragraphs from the London Daily Express describe Lady Joan Mulholland who spent some time at St. Andrews, N. B., the guest of Sir Thomas and Lady Shaughnessy.

"Lady Joan Mulholland, Princess Mary's lady-in-waiting, who has left this week in the White Star liner Baltic for Canada, will be greatly missed. A quiet, studious girl, people rarely recollect that she is the widow of Captain the Hon. Andrew Mulholland, who fell in the early days of the war.

"I have frequently met her among the quiet glades of Hyde Park during the recent hot weather. Sometimes on a Sunday, accompanied by a few friends, she selects a quiet resting place to enjoy the best that London can give of its sylvan delights. Queen Mary is most particular about her daughter's friends, so it is a high compliment of esteem for Lady Joan Mulholland to be chosen as one of Princess Mary's intimates."

It will be remembered that it was Lady Joan who accompanied the Prince of Wales on his first aeroplane trip in England.

ANALYSIS OF THE COST PER BARREL
What Cost of Living Commissioner Says Regarding Prices of Flour Prevailing in June.

The cost of living commissioner says an analysis of the cost per barrel of flour, producing 285 pounds of flour, shows as follows on prices prevailing in June:

Flour.....$10.79
Ingredients.....1.46
Baking.....1.89
Delivery.....2.88
Management and fixed charges.....1.59
Total.....$18.61

This works out the cost of bread at 7.05 cents per pound.

ing ample proof of his artistic merit. The Nanna, now at the Pettungill wharf, is one of the smallest tern vessels afloat, and is expected to sail early in the week as her cargo of deals is practically completed.

TRIO OF YOUNG EXPERT GOLFERS
Lord D'Abernon and Noley Liquor Advocates.

Lord D'Abernon, chairman of the Liquor Control Board, on opening a hall adjoining the Gretna Tavern at Carlisle, yesterday, said the mandate of the board was coming to an end with the passing of the war. Proof had been afforded that an enormously preponderant percentage of drunkenness and alcoholic mortality and disease was preventable by legislative means. Increased sobriety was of greater advantage to the trade as well as to the general community. Noley advocates of unlimited indulgence were the worst enemies of the trade and the nation, and were playing into "Pussyfoot's" hands. They might almost be termed catpaws of Pussyfoot (laughter). Drink profits had increased during the war, despite reduced drunkenness. The revenue from alcohol, if the States desired, could easily be brought up to £260,000,000 a year. The school of moderation and reasonable and scientific control had been vindicated during the war.

St. John Horse In Second Place
Little Peter Beat Out Tommy Cotter Great Race—Other L. Day Features.

Special to The Standard.
St. Stephen, Sept. 14.—Under clear skies, the St. John horse race, the 215 mixed, had three starters, Little Peter, owned and driven by W. V. D. of Carbon; Tommy Cotter, owned and driven by L. Dryden, and John and Robert Frisco, owned and driven by Archie Johnson of St. John, N. B., and they were started in the order named.

In the third heat, with the consent of the owner, W. H. Keys, was put behind Tommy Cotter, and the driver of Robert Frisco was replaced by D. W. Groves. That was a smashing heat, and when the two leaders were going very fast and side by side, just inside the distance flag, Little Peter fell, upturning the sulky and throwing Mr. Douse to the ground. Cotter was on the outside. No damage was done to horse or driver, but it gave the pole to the St. John horse in the next heat.

In the fifth heat, Cotter made a very bad break on the first turn and was an eighth of a mile behind when he squared away again at the quarter pole. Keys drove him a great mile after that and finished neck to neck.

The summary follows:
Little Peter, Douse, Carlbott, 1.13.2.1
Tommy Cotter, Dryden, St. John, 2.13.4.2
Robert Frisco, Johnson, 3.11.2.0
Manchester, 2.13.4.2
Time—2:18 1/2, 2:17 1/2, 2:16 1/2, 2:18.

In the free-for-all trot, Roy Miller had the pole, then Sakia and Brage. Miller acted badly in the scoring, but with much patience the three horses were sent away well together in each heat and the racing was good. Brage made a costly break in the first and could not regain the lost ground. He repeated the performance in the fourth but closed a great gap by a wonderful burst of speed and won out by a nose. The summary:

Brage, Boutillier, Halifax, 3.11.1.1
Sakia, Keys, St. Stephen, 1.2.2.2
Roy Miller, Beardon, Moncton, 2.3.5.0
Time—2:16 1/2, 2:17 1/2, 2:16 1/2, 2:19 1/2.
Robert M. Webber was the efficient starter during the meeting and gave general satisfaction to horsemen and patrons.

Stockmen and horsemen leave St. Stephen with expressions of entire satisfaction with the racing, but with much regret at the determination to return for the next big fair in the second week of November next year.

Woodstock Races Run Saturday
Fern Hal Won the 2.12 Trot—All the Events Were Hummers.

Special to The Standard.
Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 14.—The heavy rainstorm on Friday made it necessary to cancel the programme for the closing day of the exhibition. But most of the exhibition features were carried out on Saturday, including the horse races in the afternoon, which were keenly contested and much enjoyed. The officials were: F. Mackie, starter; R. D. Earle, of Houlton, and Chas. Smith, of Halifax, judges; F. L. Thompson, F. D. Tweedie, timers; R. C. Tait, clerk. About 5,000 people were present.

The 223 trot proved easy for the Woodstock horses, Kentucky Jean, the between La Copia and Queen Earl. The 218 class was a battle royal mare, winning in straight heats. Corwin Hal pressing hard the winner. La Copia, in the last three heats. The 212 trot was a hummer, the winner being Fern Hal, but Royal McKinnay won two heats, and the winning heat, given to Fern Hal, looked to the grand stand like a dead heat. The summary:
