FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES

CANADA'S TRADE WITH THE EMPIRE

FORTY per cent. of the total of Canada's trade, imports and exports, for the year ending March 31, 1910, is within the British Empire. Our exports to other parts of the Empire represent 54 per cent. of our total sales, and our imports from the Empire are 29 per cent. of our total purchases.

Our exports to other parts of the Empire represent 54 per cent. of our total sales, and our imports from the Empire are 29 per cent. of our total purchases.

Newfoundland bought from us $4,000,000 and sold us $1,500,000. Australia used $3,600,000 of our goods, while we bought from her a value of only $423,000.

The British East Indies bought from us $600,000 and sold us $3,500,000. British Africa bought $2,350,000 in exchange for $1,040,000 sent from Canada.

Our second greatest source of supply in the Empire is the British West Indies, which sent us $5,800,000, and they stand fourth in importance of our imperial markets, taking $3,100,000 of our goods.

Hong Kong took $551,000 from us, and sent us $245,000. The trade between New Zealand and Canada is pretty evenly balanced, and sending us $775,000. British Guiana does a large trade with Canada, shipping us $3,000,000, while we shipped in return $600,000.

Bermuda used $490,000 of our goods, and our purchases from her were very slight, if any. Our imports from the Fiji Islands were $186,000 in exchange for $100,000 of our goods.

Malta took from us a value of $11,500.

PORTER CHARLTON, WHO KILLED WIFE, LIKELY TO GO FREE

Porter Charlton, who murdered his wife, Mrs. Porter Charlton, is likely to go free. The young man, Aug. 8.—It seems to be definitely established that Porter Charlton, who murdered his wife, Mrs. Porter Charlton, in his bungalow on the shore of Lake Com, in Italy, will never pay any other penalty for his confessed crime than the humility and disgrace it has brought upon himself and his family.

Because of the intimate personal relations existing between President Taft and Judge Charlton, the father of the young man, and the peculiarly extenuating circumstances preceding the commission of the murder, with which both governments are familiar, there is no disposition on the part of the Italian authorities to press for the young man's extradition from Jersey City, where he is still held a prisoner.

The circumstances attended to of such a character, it is believed, that any jury, understanding them, would recommend the prisoner to the mercy of the court. To this is ascribable the present mental condition of the young man, who has been adjudged by alienists to be a paranoic.

During the coming week it is expected that Charlton will be released and sent by his father to a sanitarium, in the hope that in a proper environment he may be cured of the mental ailment from which he is said to now suffer.

Brookville, Ont., Aug. 8.—(Special)—The Merrill Block, one of Brookville's largest business blocks was the scene of a destructive incendiary blaze yesterday morning. The fire started in a hole under a skylight leading to the second story, among a quantity of paper and packing cases and spread rapidly. The business houses of C. L. Johnson, and C. H. Post, on the first floor; Young Liberal Club rooms, and R. H. Lindsay's offices on the second floor, and Bertrand and Robinson, cigar manufacturers, and the Trades Council rooms on the top floor, all suffered considerably, the firms mentioned carrying heavy stocks. The losses in each case are covered pretty well by insurance.

The building is owned by E. H. Merrill, of Ottawa, whose loss is protected.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE ON LEAVING THE U. S. SENATE

By Jefferson Davis

When senators, we recur to the principles upon which our government was founded; and when you deny them, and when they pervert, threatens to be destructive to our rights, we but tread in the path of our fathers when we proclaim our independence and take the hazard.

This is done, not in hostility to others, not to injure any section of the country, not even for our own pecuniary benefit, but from the high and solemn motive of defending and protecting the rights we inherited and which it is our duty to transmit unshorn to our children.

I find in myself, perhaps, a type of the general feeling of my constituents toward yours. I am sure I feel no hostility toward you senators from the north. I am sure that there is not one of you, whatever sharp discussion there may have been between us, to whom I cannot now say in the presence of my God, I wish you well; and such I am sure is the feeling of the people whom I represent toward those whom you represent.

I, therefore, feel that I but express their desire when I say I hope and they hope for peaceable relations with you, though we must part. They may be mutually beneficial to us in the future, as they have been in the past, if you so will it. The reverse may bring disaster on every portion of the country, and if you will have it thus, we will invoke the God of our fathers, who if delivered them from the power of the lion, to protect us from the ravages of the bear; and thus putting our trust in God and in our firm hearts and strong arms we will vindicate the right as best we may.

In the course of my service here, associated at different times with a great variety of senators, I see now around me some with whom I have served long; there have been points of collision, but whatever of offence there has been to me I leave here. I carry with me no hostile remembrance. Whatever offence I have given which has not been redressed or for which satisfaction has not been demanded, I have, senators, in this hour of our parting, to offer my apology for any pain which in the heat of discussion I have inflicted. I go hence unnumbered by the remembrance of any injury received and having discharged the duty of making the only reparation in my power for any injury offered.

Mr. President and senators, having made the announcement which the occasion seemed to me to require, it only remains for me to bid you a final adieu.
