

1893.

Report of Sunday School.

The office bearers and teachers of the Sunday School take much pleasure in presenting the annual report for 1893. The outlook in this branch of Christian work is very encouraging to all interested, owing to the continued large attendance of children and unabated zeal of teachers in the work during the year.

The attendance during the year has been 14,128, giving an average attendance of 287.

The Bible Class still continues to prosper under the able and zealous guidance of Mr. Geo. Malcolm, having an average attendance during the term of ten months of 53.

A word to parents: The teachers look to you for help and encouragement; may we not expect to receive it? In seeing that your children prepare each week the portion set apart for study the following Sunday. In the past this has not perhaps received as much attention as is due to the religious training of the children, and we therefore join in hoping for improvement in this respect.

We desire to extend our sympathy to the families who have been bereaved by the death of Miss M. H. Stewart, Pearl Robertson and Willie J. Becker, members of our school who have been called to their reward during the past year.

Looking back over the past year we are filled anew with hope and with stirred and quickened hearts we confidently await what another year may bring us. May the Holy Spirit be gracefully bestowed upon all who are connected with our school, then shall teachers be more active, more patient, and more prayerful, and yet many more of the scholars be early led to acknowledge Christ and find Him their loving Redeemer.
