The funeral of the late Thalia E. Eairly, wife of Dr. Gordon, was held from her late home on Wednesday at ten o'clock. Rev. J. Malcolm confrom her late home on Wednesday at ten o'clock. Rev. J. Malcolm conducted the services. Interment was in the family plot at Wardsville. The pallbearers were W. Bayne, C. Telfer, D. Stalker, R. H. Moore, Chas. Fennell and J. A. Armstrong. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family by the many friends, who feet they, too, have lost a good Christian friend, as the deceased was. Throughout a year's illness the late Mrs. Gordon was always pleasant and cheerful, never complaining, but the rather giving her callers the impression she was going on a pleasant journey. Besides the husband are two daughters, Martha and Anna, and two sons, George and Will, and a sister, Miss Eairly, and two brothers. Among those at tending the funeral from a distance were Mr. Eairly of Middlemiss, a brother, and Mrs. Will Gordon of Ronleau, Sask. The floral offerings were lovely.

funeral of her uncle, the late Theodore Barr, in Detroit on Friday.

The remains of the late Charlie Armstrong were brought from Windsor on Wednesday morning and conveyed to the home of his brother Alex, where the funeral services were held at two clock in the afternon. Rev. J. Hale of Christ Church conducted the services. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery. The pallbearers were brother conductors of deceased. A large number of friends accomposite the family from Windsor, as "Charlie" was there as here most popular. He made frequent visits to his old home town and everybody was glad to see him. His death came as a sad blow to all, for many did not realize how serious the illness was which affected him. Only a week previous to his death he visited his brothers here. Deepest sympathy is extended to the family in the death of a comparatively young man. Besides his widow and two daughters are his mother, two sisters, Millie (Mrs. Alex. C. King), and Effle (Mrs. J. D. McNaughton), and two brothers, Wm. J. and Alex. His father passed away in August last. The funeral was a large one and the floral offerings, which were most beautiful, required a special carriage to take them to the cemetery.

This being "Old Boys' Reunion This being "Old Boys' Reunion" year, a meeting was called recently to see what should be done. The meeting was well attended. A resolution was unanimously passed for "No reunion while the war is on." The question of the use of the money on hand was fully discussed and finally decided to purchase two hundred dollars' worth of war loan certificates. We feel sure this will meet with the We feel sure this will meet with the approval of every "old boy."

The following letter is from the same Belgian who wrote some time ago to Mrs. Heatherington, he having found a note in a sox which she had knitted. The letter will be read with deep interest. The original was in French:

Front, Dec. 15th, 1916. Dear Mrs. Heatherington, --You will pardon me if I write you again in French, but I have no interpreter here at present. How are you? Well, I hope, if not, I shall pray your prompt return to health.

return to health.

When you will receive this, Christmas will be here, so I hasten to wish you a merry Christmas, also perfect health and I pray that God may grant all your prayers. I have received in good condition the box and I am entirely happy over it. I thank you with all my heart as also the kind ladies who have helped to make up the box.

Will you be good enough to give my heartiest thanks to Miss Mary Tait, Miss Lyla Roger, and also to Miss Jessie Houston. I shall write them some cards and letters which I shall decorate a little. At this time I have not what I need for that and I hope these ladies will be good enough to ex-decorate a little. At this time I have not what I need for that and I hope these ladies will be good enough to excuse me. Everything in the box was so very well chosen. We have made tea with some of our friends and that has given us for a moment a feeling of comfort. Drinking the tea made me think for a moment that I was at a five oclock tea, such as you have in your beautiful land, of which we hear so much. Alas: I had to return to the sad reality, this was only a dream, from which I was awakened by the noise of the cannon. I would be glad to know your land, of which so many charms and such beauty are praised. It seems to me that I would live absolutely happy if I could wander over the plains, climb its mountains, explore its forests, visit the cities, admire the monuments and the splendors of your dear country.

I shall end with the hope of son.
