

Lingwick and Weedon, and north-west by Lake Aylmer and the river St. Francis which separate it from Garthby, containing 51,000 acres of land, was erected into a township named Stratford, April 3rd, 1856.

Another tract in the same district, bounded north-east by Coleraine, south-east by Lake Aylmer and the St. Francis river which separate it from Stratford, south-west by Weedon and South Ham, and north-west by Wolfestown, containing 46,000 acres of land, was erected a township named Garthby, May 25th, 1855.

These two townships are situated in a rough and hilly section of country, and are as yet but sparsely settled. They are united in one municipality; and for the year 1866 the sum of $63,00 was levied for schools; the government grant being $31,08. The population of Stratford is given as 413 souls; that of Garthby as 275.

ST. CAMILLE.

This is a small municipality formed from part of the original township of Wotton. It contains a Roman Catholic church, a post office and two stores, and weekly mails arrive here. For 1866, the sum of $139,00 was levied for schools; the government grant being $54,94. Its population is given as 479 French, and 7 English speaking inhabitants.

WEEDON.

A tract lying within the district of Three Rivers, bounded north-east by Garthby and Stratford, south-

2