

An Autumn Day With The Toronto Hunt

Mr. Aemilius Jarvis (left), and Lt.-Col. Chadwick.

ON Wednesday of last week the Hamilton Alerts and the Toronto A. C. C. played off the tie in the senior O. R. F. U. championship, the Alerts winning by a score of 23-10. The Alerts proved themselves quite the better team.

On Saturday the Hamilton Alerts, leaders in the O. R. F. U., defeated the Toronto Argonauts, leaders in the Interprovincial league. The line-up:

Alerts—Flying wing, Flannery; backs, Carr, Leckie, Becker; quarter, Harper; scrumage, Craig, McCarthy, Pfeiffer; wings, Grey, Ross, Craig, Clarke, Bleakley, Fisher, Smith.

Argonauts—Flying wing, Meeghan; backs, Lawson, Clarke, O'Connor; quarter, Dissette; scrumage, Murphy, Mulligan, Sinclair; wings, Gale, Foster, Whale, Heuther, Reaume, Murray. Binkley replaced Clarke in first half.

The Alerts won by a score of 11-4. The Alerts Junior team also won their championship by defeating the O. A. C. 13 to 7. The Hamilton Rough Riders won the Intermediate by beating R. M. C. 40 to 18. Three championships in one day.

The Two Royal Pages

WITH the arrival of a royal Governor-General comes the appointment of pages whose duty it is to carry the train of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught. These pages appeared at the opening of Parliament and the Drawing Room.
