Paper puts coun

MISSISSAUGA (CUP) — The student newspaper at Erindale College has won its year-long battle to control its typesetting and editorship.

The college's student union voted unanimously February 23 to rehire Medium II editor Peter Stasierowski — fired three weeks before — and to rescind their order forcing the paper to use poor quality typesetting.

Stasierowski was fired by the student union (ECSU) February 3, when a closed council session criticized his failure to fulfill his obligations as editor and his apparent lack of time and motivation to make himself available on request," according to ECSU vice-president Joe Raftis. Raftis had also threatened to close the paper if it didn't accept the firing.

But the staff of the Medium II rejected ECSU's move, pointing out that the firing was outside council's constitutional jurisdiction.

The February 23 meeting decided that while Stasierowski would remain as editor, he would not be paid for the remaining five issues of the paper. The salary cut will save ECSU $450.

He said the meeting, ECSU president Tim Van Wart said "We didn't use the greatest amount of tact in the world firing Peter."

He said he hopes that with Stasierowski's reappointment as editor, the Medium II constitution will be finalized. A clause in the proposed constitution would prohibit ECSU from firing the Medium II editor.

Following the decision, Stasierowski said, "We can get back to putting out the paper. The firing was caused by a lack of communications on all sides. Once Van Wart talked, the problem was solved."

The paper staff had been fighting a council decision that
