

If you care, take the time to listen.

Are you looking for a challenging, rewarding profession? You'll find it, and more, while learning to help people with speech, language and hearing disorders.

Boston-Bouvé College at Northeastern University offers two exciting master of science programs in Speech-Language Pathology or Audiology (the only one of its kind in the Boston area). Both programs are accredited by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association.

You'll have the opportunity to gain practical experience in our on-campus speech clinic. In addition, both programs include clinical practice in many of Boston's prestigious medical institutions. Graduate assistantships and other financial aid are available.

Call (617) 437-2708, or write Graduate School, Boston-Bouvé College of Human Professions, 106 Dockser Hall, Northeastern University, Boston, MA 02115. Because some people's problems are worth listening to.

Dr. Robert Redden, Program Director and Chairman of the Department of Speech-Language, Pathology and Audiology, will be available to meet with you to discuss the programs on March 20, 1989 at the Lord Nelson Hotel, HMS Britannia Room, from 3:00pm to 4:00pm. Ms. Elaine Allard, Coordinator of Graduate Admissions will also be available to answer any questions you might have about other graduate programs offered by Boston-Bouvé College.
