FROM PHILIP RING.
Halifax, N.S.

November 23, 1909.

Dear Sir:

I have before me your favor of the 18th. inst. re Industrial Dispute Act and while I am almost tempted to make some observations, on second thought, considering my position as a government official, I must conclude that it would not be advisable to offer any criticism. That your effort may not be wasted, however, I will refer you to Mr. John T. Joy, a man who thoroughly understands the law, and its working. His address is, Longshoremen's Office, Water St., Halifax.

Yours truly,
