July 30, 1936.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen,
320 Bay Street,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

It would be no imposition, but a privilege, to see you avail yourself of the accommodation I have arranged in your name at the Lord Nelson Hotel. The accommodation is there, and if it does not interfere with your plans I would feel very much honored if you would use it.

You have always been such a good friend of this City and Province that we feel we never can repay you, and any small attentions of this kind are entirely inadequate when placed against your service to the Maritimes and your constant readiness to assist our people in every way possible.

Please do not think for a moment that you are "imposing" upon anyone, for to have you as our guest here would be a real pleasure as well as an honor for us.

Yours faithfully,

W. H. Dennis
