

POOR PRINT
Epreuve illisible

To the Rt. Hon
Mackenzie King
Prime Minister of Canada
Ottawa

11, av. Helios, Lourdes, France
14-3-46

C274565

274565

private and confidential

Dear Mr. Mackenzie King

Allow me to congratulate you most heartily for the civic courage which you showed disclosing under the pretext of a vulgar and alas! very ordinary military-attache's spying affair, the most dangerous hidden preparations of a world political cataclysm, the centre of which is presently in Moscow, hiding itself behind human imperial Nationalism, the geopolitical axis of which are partly legitimate, but were always, obscuring the existence of the human Empire, Christian in its bottom and essence, considered outbought for by human historical traditions, obvious economic and strategic interests and the Man's in the street psychology - a subject to be attacked not by general upheavals, but by treaties, like those which the Government under Nicolas II has signed in the Far East, or in 1915 with Great Britain for the Straits Settlements.

Our Canadian Public Opinion rightly grasped in the spy affair the important point is not in an atom-bomb secret, as a matter of fact and most happily, not stolen at all - but in the systematic corruption, psychologically even more pernicious than the money out, that a Great State is cynically practicing, pretending in the same time, as we saw with an incomparable disgust on the London Conference of the U.S.A., during 1945, to give public lessons of international morality - and to whom? To the most noble-idealistic States of the present time, Great Britain, having risked her life in order to save a principle, having heroically sacrificed herself for the triumph of the principle of self-determination and spending now all her efforts not so much for her own benefit, but for a new equilibrium, impossible to be attained with such partners as U.S.S.R.

And that is the point for which I am most unceasingly writing and encouraged by the answers of some of the most influential world strategists - it is the most dangerous mistake to try to make a lamb out of a wolf, a world conspiracy in order to prepare a world progressive domination in the name of hidden aims of U.S.S.R. the tyranny of which, camouflaged in a false democracy, also tyranny and therefore not scizable, is 1000 times more perilous for the oppressed human People and as a bad example for all mobs of the World (coloured ones especially!), than that of France over the Thracians, for a matter of fact,