

1/102/H.

October 3, 1917.

Sir:-

On 24th August I wrote you with respect to an application from Mr. Charles Hardy, manager of the Nanoose Lumber Company, for the timber on the Nanoose reserve.

A letter was also written you on the 20th September regarding the complaint of Mr. Charles Deacon, of Retreat Cove, that some of the Indians of Penelakut Reserve No. 9 were encroaching on his property.

As no replies have been received to either of these communications I beg to request that you will give these matters your immediate attention.

Your obedient servant,

Chief Inspector of Indian Agencies.

W. R. Robertson, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Duncan, B. C.
