

5. WHAT BENEFITS DOES CANADA RECEIVE FROM THE TREATY, PROTOCOL AND SALES AGREEMENT? . . .	Page 97
(1) Payments for Flood Control in the United States	97
(2) Downstream Power Benefits in the United States	98
(a) Power Benefits Sold	98
(b) Power Benefits in Addition to Those of the Sales Agreement	101
(c) Other Benefits	101
(3) Benefits on the Kootenay River in Canada	101
(4) Generation at the Mica Creek Project in Canada	102
(5) Total Generation in the Columbia River Basin in Canada	102
(6) Diversion Rights for Canada	104
(7) Other Benefits	104
(a) Flood Control Benefits in Canada	104
(b) Balance of Payments Situation	104
(c) Employment	104
6. SUMMARY	104

CHAPTER VI

CONCLUSIONS: THE TREATY APPRAISED

1. Best Use of the River	108
2. Downstream Benefits	108
3. The Best Projects Were Chosen	108
4. Prices Paid for Power and Flood Control	109
5. Will Flood Control Claims Interfere with Canadian Interests? .	109
6. Consumptive Uses	110
7. Sale of Benefits After Thirty Years	110
8. The Sale is Consistent with Sound Export Policy	110
9. The Arrow Lakes and its People	110
10. The Contribution to International Law	110
11. Canadian Operational Independence is Maintained	111