

(d) Works of general literature, other than books of reference, encyclopædias, dictionaries, etc., may be taken out for a week.

(e) The books named in the preceding two sub-sections shall be available only to Barristers and Solicitors who are members of the Law Society upon application to the Librarian, whose duty it shall be to issue them upon such application if the applicant shall not have previously disregarded the said regulations, taking a receipt on which shall be recorded the time of the return of the book and its condition.

(9) It shall be the duty of the Librarian to enforce these regulations and to report any infringement of them to the Library Committee.

COUNTY LIBRARIES.

66. Branch Law Libraries for the use of the Courts and the Profession may be established and maintained in any county town, or in exceptional cases in such other place in the county as Convocation may allow, on the following conditions: —

(1) All correspondence on the subject shall stand referred to the "County Libraries Committee," and such Committee shall have power to carry out the provisions of Rules 68 to 71, subject to the directions of Convocation, the Finance Committee retaining its control over expenditure.

(2) The Practitioners in any county or union of counties may form a Library Association, and incorporate the same, by the name of "The (name of the county town, county, or union of counties) Law (or Law Library) Association."

(3) It shall be provided by the Constitution of the Association, that
