

IV. An Oration in Praise of the Founders and Benefactors of the University, shall be delivered by the Professors of History and Modern Literature alternately.

V. Honorary or Regular Degrees shall be conferred as at other times.

VI. Compositions which may have obtained the Gold Medal, founded by His Excellency Sir Howard Douglas, or other Prizes which may be approved by the Council, shall be recited by the Authors; and the Prizes shall be then delivered to them by the presiding Officer.

VII. The Public Act shall then be closed in solemn form by the Chancellor, President or Vice President.

CONCLUSION.

TIT. I.—Of the Execution of the Statutes.

I. Punishments may be inflicted on all Members of the University whatsoever, for offences against the Statutes or Regulations founded on them, at the discretion of the Officers empowered to impose the same, when no specific punishment is directed by the Statutes.

II. Punishments may be Pecuniary Fines; Impositions on Exercises; Confinement to private apartments or to College; Disallowance of Terms; Disfranchisement or Refusal of Degrees; Suspension or Deprivation of Places, Offices, or Privileges; Rustication, Expulsion, or Degradation.

III. No Punishment exceeding a Fine of Five Shillings or Confinement for Twenty-four Hours, shall be inflicted without the authority of the Vice President, who in graver cases shall consult the other Officers of the College, or give information to the Council; and an Appeal may at any time be made to the Council through the medium of any three of its Members who shall think fit to sanction and bring forward the same.

IV. No Member of the University shall be suspended or removed from any Office or Station in the College, or rusticated for a longer period than two Terms, deprived of his Degree or expelled, without the approbation of the Council.
