

Resolved,—That the Financial Agent of this Convention, the Rev. John [unclear], be empowered to pay the Rev. E. D. Very, the sum of £0 0 0 for printing the Minutes of this Convention from the Foreign Mission Fund.

On motion of Rev. R. W. Cunningham,

Resolved,—That the warmest thanks of this Convention be tendered to the inhabitants of this place for the very courteous, generous, and hospitable manner in which this Body has been entertained during its present session; in acknowledgment of which it most earnestly beseeches Almighty God to attend them and their families with blessings temporal, spiritual, and eternal.

Adjourned to meet at Portland the 3rd Saturday in September, 1800.

Prayer and benediction by Rev. T. S. Harding.
